JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE.

The second annual session of the one hundred and ninetieth General Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts convened at the State House in Boston on the first Wednesday of January, being the third day of the year two thousand eighteen and of the year of the independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-second.

General Court convened.

And the members of the House of Representatives, having assembled in the Representatives' Chamber, were called to order at three minutes after eleven o'clock A.M. by Speaker Robert A. DeLeo of Winthrop.

House called to order.

Prayer.

Prayer was offered by Father Rick Walsh of the Paulist Center of Boston, Chaplain of the House, as follows:

Loving God, it is from Your generous Spirit that the many gifts of our Commonwealth flow. We are thankful for the blessings we share and enjoy today; they warm our hearts even during these record cold days.

Prayer.

During the many days of the Session ahead there is much to learn and to study; there is much work to be done.

Thank you God for the opportunity and the ability of this General Court to serve the almost 7 million citizens of our great Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Bless our legislators and their dedicated staff with good health. May this body of women and men seek unity of purpose among each member, respecting differences while crafting meaningful and effective legislation.

Give our legislators the courage to persevere in negotiation. Make them steadfast in hearing thoughtful, informed voices that advocate what may be different approaches, new ideas and creative solutions to the problems we face as a Commonwealth.

May our lawmakers have the humility and grace to listen to the hidden and powerless voices of those who are in need of their capable skills.

May Your Spirit of Grace and Mercy assist these elected officials and their staff during the many long hours of reading reports and listening to testimonials and drafting documents.

Help these lawmakers face the many responsibilities and challenges that lie before them in dockets, calendars, and in meeting deadlines.

Bless the efforts of the House Clerk and his staff entrusted with the important task of keeping accurate journals and records.

Bless our public safety officials and our Court officers in this Chamber and throughout the State House; may their eyes and ears be sharp while offering a spirit of hospitality to all who enter this historic building.

And bless all those who visit the State House either as tourists, teachers, students, or concerned citizens.

Prayer. We ask Your blessing also upon the legislative agents who work on behalf of various organizations; may they also seek the well-being of those who lack the resources they enjoy having at their disposal.

Bless our student interns with eagerness to learn the art of law-making and politics. May the elected officials they assist inspire them to careers in public service.

We ask You to also bless the reporters and staff of the State House News Service. May they report any newsworthy items fairly and judiciously.

May Your Good and Gracious Spirit be with all of us here today and in the many days that follow in this the Second Annual Session of the 190th legislative session of the General Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Amen.

Pledge of allegiance. At the request of the Speaker, the members, guests and employees joined with him in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Silent Prayer.

Deirdre Roney. During the session, at the request of the Speaker, the members, guests and employees stood in a moment of silent tribute to the memory of Deirdre Roney.

Deirdre had a long and distinguished legal career in public service, most recently serving as the General Counsel to the State Ethics Commission. She was an invaluable resource to members and staff of the House of Representatives. The House extended its deepest condolences to her family, especially her spouse Patrick Taylor and her son Nathaniel Taylor, and to her colleagues at the Massachusetts Ethics Commission.
