

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE.

Tuesday, May 30, 2017.

Met according to adjournment at eleven o'clock A.M., in an Informal Session, with Mr. Donato of Medford in the Chair (having been appointed by the Speaker, under authority conferred by Rule 5, to perform the duties of the Chair).

Pledge of allegiance.

At the request of the Chair (Mr. Donato), the members, guests and employees joined with him in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

JFK 100th Anniversary.

President John F. Kennedy,—centennial of his birth.

At the request of the Speaker the members, guests and employees stood for a moment of silent tribute in honor of President John F. Kennedy, who was born in Brookline one hundred years ago this week. As our 35th President, he reassured us of American exceptionalism: pride in a nation that includes and drives all of our residents. His sense of nationhood sprang from a shared responsibility. As Bay Staters, we are heirs to Kennedy's unyielding belief in both the power of what we, as Americans, can accomplish together and the magic of exploration. Accordingly, we have an "obligation to ourselves as well as others" as we strive to make the world a better place.
