Reports of Committees.

Prior to the noon recess (Mr. Donato of Medford being in the Chair),— By Mr. Michlewitz of Boston, for the committee on Ways and Means, that the Bill prioritizing patient access to care (House, No. 2370), ought to pass with an amendment substituting therefor a bill with the same title (House, No. 5595) [Representatives Smola of Warren, McKenna of Sutton, Pease of Westfield, Marsi of Charlton, Sullivan-Almeida of Abington and Xiarhos of Barnstable dissenting]. Referred, under Rule 7A, to the committee on Steering, Policy and Scheduling.

Pregnancies,— care.

Mr. Honan of Boston, for said committee, then reported that the matter be scheduled for consideration by the House.

Under suspension of Rule 7A, on motion of Mr. Michlewitz of Boston, the bill was read a second time forthwith. The amendment recommended by the committee on Ways and Means then was adopted; and the substituted bill was ordered to a third reading.

Subsequently, the noon recess having terminated (Ms. Hogan of Stow being in the Chair), under suspension of the rules, on motion of Mr. Day of Stoneham, the bill (having been reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn) was read a third time.

After debate on the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, (Mr. Donato of Medford being in the Chair) Mr. McKenna of Sutton moved to amend it by adding the following section:

“SECTION 4. Chapter 62 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition of the General Laws of Massachusetts, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

Section 65.

(a) For the purposes of this section, ‘abortion services’ shall include the performing of or referring for an abortion.

(b) Taxpayers shall have the option to indicate on their income tax return that they do not want any portion of their income tax liability to be utilized for abortion services. When a taxpayer makes such election, the taxpayer’s income tax liability may not be used to pay for abortion services.

(c) The portion of the taxpayer’s income tax liability that is not to be used to pay for abortion services, pursuant to this section, must be deposited into a special account, separate and apart from the General Fund, whose purpose shall be to develop and implement a public information program to inform the general public of the provisions of section 39-½ of Chapter 119, concerning voluntary abandonment of a newborn infant, also known as the Baby Safe Haven Law.

(d) The amount of the taxpayer’s income tax liability to be set aside in the special account specified in paragraph (c) shall be determined by multiplying the taxpayer’s income tax liability by the percentage of the General Fund dedicated to paying for abortion services in the previous year.”.

Ms. Peisch of Wellesley thereupon raised a point of order that the amendment offered by the gentleman from Sutton is beyond the scope of the bill presently before the House.

Point of order.

In answer to the point of order, the Chair (Mr. Donato of Medford) stated that the pending bill concerns the legal and medical standards governing the performance of an abortion. The amendment concerns tax administration and the allocation of public funds and is therefore beyond the scope of the pending bill. The point of order is well taken. The amendment will be laid aside accordingly.

On the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, the sense of the House was taken by the yeas and nays, at the request of Mr. Day of Stoneham and on the roll call 119 members voted in the affirmative and 33 in the negative.

See [Yea and Nay No. 236 in Supplement.]

Therefore the bill (House, No. 5595) was passed to be engrossed. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Bill passed to be engrossed,— yea and nay
No. 236.

Order.

On motion of Mr. Mariano of Quincy,—

Ordered, That when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet tomorrow at eleven o'clock A.M.

Next sitting.

Mr. Jones of North Reading then moved that the House adjourn; and the motion prevailed. Accordingly, without proceeding to consideration of the matters in the Orders of the Day, at twenty-four minutes before four o'clock P.M. (Mr. Donato of Medford being in the Chair), the House adjourned, to meet the following day at eleven o'clock A.M., in an Informal Session.
