For the purpose of repairing and maintaining park facilities in the city of Springfield associated with the Time Out for Communities program
.....500,000".

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Lees moved to amend the bill by inserting after section 29 the following three sections:—

"SECTION 29A. Section 1 of chapter 175 of the acts of 1997 is hereby amended by striking out the first paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:—

Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 40F to 40I, inclusive, of chapter 7 of the General Laws, the division of capital planning and operations shall convey by deed, for consideration in accordance with the procedure described in section 6, land used for open space with the buildings thereon located in the town of Wilbraham under the control of the division of fisheries and wildlife and commonly known as the Wilbraham Game Farm, hereinafter referred to as the property, for use as a public park for recreation, conservation, education, agriculture, including agricultural fairs, and wildlife management purposes, under such use restrictions and environmental protection requirements provided in this act.

SECTION 29B. Clause (3) of section 6 of said chapter 175 is hereby amended by striking out subclause (iv) and inserting in place thereof the following subclause:—

(iv) the property shall be managed and administered to the extent applicable in accordance with the use guidelines adopted by said town of Wilbraham at its annual town meeting of May 1, 1995, including the provisions relating to the annual peach festival, and such use and environmental restrictions as are set forth in section 1 to 4, inclusive.

SECTION 29C. Said chapter 175 is hereby further amended by striking out section 7 and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 7. Upon completion of the conveyance, the owner shall establish a public park in accordance with the vote of the town of Wilbraham annual town meeting of May 1, 1995, to the extent applicable, to be managed and administered in accordance with the use guidelines adopted by said annual town meeting of May 1, 1995, to the extent applicable, and such use and environmental restrictions as are set forth in section 1 to 4, inclusive; provided, however, that said use guidelines may be amended in substance not inconsistent with the provisions of this act and in the manner applicable to the amendment of zoning by-laws; provided further, that any revenues accruing to the owner derived from any use or activity on the property may be used solely to further the purposes and uses of the property set forth in section 1 and such revenues shall not inure to the private benefit of any other person or organization; provided further, that should the property be used or managed by the owner not in accordance with such uses and environmental restrictions as are set forth in said sections 1 to 4, inclusive, and the owner not have cured any noncompliant uses within 30 days of receipt of written notice by ten taxable inhabitants of said town of Wilbraham or should the owner determine that it no longer capable or willing to perform its obligations under this act, title to said property shall pass to said town of Wilbraham to be used for open space in accordance with such uses and environmental restrictions as are set forth in said sections 1 to 4, inclusive, but said town shall not be liable for any acts, omissions or occurrences arising prior to passing of title; and provided further, that should the property, following such transfer of title to said town, be used or managed by said town not in accordance with such uses and environmental restrictions as are set forth in said sections 1 to 4, inclusive, and the town not having cured any noncompliant uses within 30 days of receipt of written notice by ten taxable inhabitants of the town, title to said property shall revert to the care and control of the division of capital planning and operations and any further disposition of said property shall be subject to the provisions of section 40E to 40J, inclusive, of chapter 7 of the General Laws. The superior court shall have jurisdiction over any claims that the property is not used or managed in accordance with such uses and environmental restrictions as are set forth in said sections 1 to 4, inclusive. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, the owner shall be deemed not to be a state or municipal agency by virtue of the duties, restrictions or activities imposed or authorized by this section."

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Knapik moved to amend the bill by inserting after section 10 the following two sections:—

"SECTION 10A. Item 4190-0100 of section 2 of chapter 43 of the acts of 1997 is hereby amended by adding the following words:— provided, not less than $75,000 shall be expended for the purchase of prescription drugs to stock an outpatient pharmacy'.

SECTION 10B. Said item 4190-0100 of said section 2 of said chapter 43 is hereby further amended by striking out the figure $13,108,171' and inserting in place thereof the following figure:— $13,183,171'."; and

By inserting after section 43 the following section:—

"SECTION . Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, the Soldiers' Home in Holyoke is hereby authorized to establish an outpatient pharmacy, which shall dispense such pharmaceuticals as are included in the institution's formulary to registered patients of the Soldiers' Home outpatient department in accordance with prescriptions issued by a physician on the medical staff of said soldiers' home. Such outpatient pharmacy shall be established and maintained in accordance with all applicable state and federal laws and regulations. Said Soldiers' Home is authorized to require payment for such services in the form of a co-payment annually established by the superintendent and by the office of health and human services applicable to each prescription dispensed. All such monies shall be deposited into the retained revenue account of said soldiers' home to be used solely for the purpose of maintaining the outpatient pharmacy service."

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Knapik moved to amend the bill by inserting after section 6 the following section:—

"SECTION 6C. Item 7506-7962 of section 2 of chapter 267 of the acts of 1995 is hereby amended by adding the following words:— ; and provided further, that notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 7 of the General Laws or any other general or special law to the contrary, the commissioner of capital planning and operations may employ the designer employed to prepare the study for said gymnasium/athletic and fitness facility to prepare the plans and specifications for said facility'."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Moore moved to amend the bill by inserting after section 4 the following two sections:—

"SECTION 4B. Subsection (e) of section 2 of chapter 62, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the words Part C adjusted gross income shall be the Part C gross income comprised of the following classes as adjusted.' and inserting in place thereof the following words:—

(1) Part C adjusted gross income shall be the Part C gross income comprised of the following classes as adjusted, less the deduction provided in paragraph (2).

(2) Any excess of the deductions allowable under subsection (d) over the sum of (I) the Part B gross income; and (ii) that portion of the Part A gross income which is effectively connected with the active conduct of a trade or business of the taxpayer; provided, however, that the amount deductible hereunder shall not exceed the amount of Part C gross income which is effectively connected with the active conduct of a trade or business of the taxpayer.";

"SECTION 4A. The last sentence of the second paragraph of section 1 of chapter 62 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 1996 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following words:— ; and provided further, that loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset shall be taken into account only to the extent that such loss is allowed as a federal deduction under section one hundred and sixty-five of the Code'; and

By adding the following section:

SECTION 45. Sections 4A and 4B shall be effective for the taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996."

The amendment was rejected.

Communication.

The President in the Chair,— the Clerk read the following communication:

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
SENATE MAJORITY LEADER
STATE HOUSE, BOSTON 02133-1053
March 12, 1998.

Mr. Edward B. O'Neill
Clerk of the Senate
State House, Room 335
Boston, MA 02133

Dear Mr. Clerk:

Due to illness, I was unable to be present in the Senate Chamber on Thursday, March 12, 1998. Had circumstances permitted, I would have voted in the affirmative on Engrossment of House Bill 5300, an act making appropriations for the fiscal year 1998 to provide for certain collective bargaining agreements, for supplementing certain existing appropriations, and certain other activities and projects, and in the affirmative on Senate Bill 2138, an act to close the gap in the hiring of women employed in certain trades on state-funded construction contracts.

Sincerely,

THOMAS C. NORTON,
Majority Leader.

On motion of Ms. Melconian, the above statement was ordered printed in the Journal of the Senate.
