SECTION 4. Any reporting requirements imposed upon vendors of tangible personal property, including motor vehicles, by law or regulation, including but not limited to the requirements for filing returns required by chapter 62C, shall remain in effect for sales during the period of December 1, 2001 through December 2, 2001, inclusive.

Notwithstanding section 21 of chapter 29 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2000 Official Edition, on or before March 15, 2002, the comptroller shall transfer, from the Tax Reduction Fund into each fund named in said report, the amount foregone by said fund, as reported.

SECTION 6. The commissioner of revenue shall issue any instructions or forms, or promulgate any rules or regulations, necessary to effect the purposes of this act.

SECTION 7. The provisions of this act shall take effect upon passage.”

After debate, Ms. Walsh arose to a point of order, which, being stated was that the amendment, offered by the Senator from Hampden and Hampshire, Mr. Lees, was beyond the scope of the bill presently before the Senate.

The President stated that the bill before the Senate is a very discrete motor vehicle excise tax notification bill that is narrowly crafted. The President noted that the proposed amendment is a highly controversial and high-profile proposal relative to a sales tax holiday. The President therefor ruled that the amendment was beyond the scope of the pending bill, and that the point of order was well taken.

Mr. Lees appealed the ruling of the Chair and was seconded by Mr. Tarr.

The question, “Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgement of the Senate?” was then considered; and the question thereon was determined by a call of the yeas and nays, at nine minutes past two o’clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Lees, as follows, to wit (yeas 30 — nays 6):
