UNCORRECTED PROOF OF THE JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

Wednesday, March 8, 2006.

Met at nine minutes past one o'clock P.M.

The following prayer was offered by Father Bernard McLaughlin, Chaplain of the Senate:

Think of this as Renewing Faith in America.

I am an American — a proud American. I can speak my mind and worship my God by my choice.

Our forebears came looking for what we later found. They also found however, signs entitled NINA (no Irish need apply) or "Shackles Sold Here" or "Gooks or Spics Go Home".

But amazingly in the eyes of the rest of the world America is still a nation in progress.

- Those who want freedom come here.
- Those who seek success come here.
- Those who look for charity come here.
- Those who look for security come here.

Do you know that the Creator never did better than with America?

You can tell by all the beauty and love the Creator gave to us — AMERICA. Amen.

The President, members, guests and employees then recited the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Moment of Silence.

At the request of the President, the members, guests and employees stood in a moment of silence and reflection for Joe Tecce, a lifelong resident of the North End and founder of Joe Tecce's Ristorante, a North End landmark.

Adjournment in Memory of Joe Tecce.

The Senator from Essex, Mr. Baddour, presented a request that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so as a mark of respect to the memory of Joe Tecce.

Mr. Tecce was a lifelong resident of the North End and was the son of Italian immigrants. He learned at a young age that little of value comes without dedication and that, through hard work, anything is possible. Mr. Tecce's commitment to his community and work was never more apparent than when he founded Joe Tecce's Ristorante, a North End landmark. More importantly, he was a devoted husband to the late Annette (Mercandate) Tecce, a loving father to Salvatore Tecce, Jaculine Mucci, Joseph Tecce, and Robert Tecce, and an adoring grandfather and great-grandfather. He will long be remembered for his personal strength, family values, work ethic, and ties to his community.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Mr. Joe Tecce, at four minutes before two o'clock P.M. on motion of Ms. Menard, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Thursday at eleven o'clock A.M.
