PAPER FROM THE HOUSE.

Emergency Preamble Adopted.

An engrossed Bill relative to the annual observance of Leopold-ville Disaster Remembrance Day (see Senate, No. 1873, amended), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage and containing an emergency preamble,— was laid before the Senate; and, a separate vote being taken in accordance with the requirements of Article LXVII of the Amendments to the Constitution, the preamble was adopted in concurrence, by a vote of 14 to 0. The bill was signed by the President and sent to the House for enactment.

Report of a Committee.

By Mr. Panagiotakos, for the committee on Ways and Means, that the House Bill making an appropriation for the fiscal year 2008 to provide supplemental funding for a low income energy assistance program (printed in House, No. 4332, amended),— ought to pass, with an amendment striking out section 2B.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Panagiotakos, and the bill was read a second time and was amended, as recommended by the committee on Ways and Means.

Messrs. Tisei, Joyce, Tarr, Knapik, Hedlund and Brown moved to amend the bill by inserting at the end thereof the following section:—

“SECTION 4, Notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary no final regulations shall be issued under the authority provided the Attorney General pursuant to chapter 93A of the general laws relating to mortgage lending and the procurement, processing or arrangement of any loan by brokerage firms until the Commissioner of the Division of Banks has provided official notice of any proposed regulations to licensed mortgage lenders and mortgage brokers, nor shall such proposed regulations go into effect until 90 days after such official notice.”

After remarks, the question on adoption of the amendment was determined by a call of the yeas and nays, at two minutes past two o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, as follows, to wit (yeas 38 — nays 0) [Yeas and Nays No. 132]:

NAYS — 0.

The yeas and nays having been completed at eight minutes past two o'clock P.M., the amendment was adopted.

Messrs. Tisei, Tarr, Knapik, Hedlund and Brown moved to amend the bill in section 2A, in item 7004-1000 by striking the figure "15,000,000" and inserting in place there of the following:—"25,000,000".

After debate, the amendment was rejected.

Messrs. Tisei, Tarr, Knapik, Hedlund and Brown moved to amend the bill by inserting at the end thereof the following new section:—

"SECTION 4. Chapter 29 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 official edition, is hereby amended by inserting after section 5B the following new section:—

Section 5B½. Estimates of total revenues from the operation of the state lottery.

Section 5B½. On or before October fifteenth, January fifteenth and April fifteenth of each fiscal year the treasurer shall prepare and submit to the governor, to the house and senate committees on ways and means, and house and senate clerks revised estimates of revenue anticipated to be received from the operation of the lottery. Included in said report shall be the revenues received by quarter, the anticipated impact of those receipts on the previous projections and the potential impact to aid payments to cities and towns previously set forth in section three of that fiscal year's general appropriations act; unless, in his opinion, no significant change in his previous estimates of total available revenues is indicated by information then available to him, and he shall accompany his revised estimates with explanations of any changes in his estimates for specific sources of revenue.

Said treasurer shall also make such information available on or soon after the aforementioned dates to the general public through publication on the official website of the Commonwealth in such a manner that is easily identifiable and conspicuously located.

After debate, the amendment was rejected.

The bill, as amended, was then ordered to a third reading and read a third time.

Pending the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, Mr. Augustus moved to amend the bill by inserting before the enacting clause the following emergency preamble:—

"Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is forthwith to provide supplemental funding for low-income home energy assistance and to further regulate mortgage lending practices, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience."

The amendment was adopted.

After remarks, the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, in concurrence, with the amendments, was determined by a call of the yeas and nays, at one minute past three o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tisei, as follows, to wit (yeas 37 — nays 0) [Yeas and Nays No. 133]:

The yeas and nays having been completed at eight minutes past three o'clock P.M., the bill was passed to be enacted, two-thirds of the members present having agreed to pass the same, and it was signed by the President and laid before the Governor for his approbation.

Orders of the Day.

The Orders of the Day were considered, as follows:

The Senate Bill relative to members of the Executive Council (Senate, No. 2332),— was considered the main question being on ordering the bill to a third reading.

The pending amendment previously moved by Messrs. Tisei and Hedlund striking the text in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following new text:—

“Section 4(c) of chapter 268A of the general laws, as appearing in the 2006 official edition is hereby amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:— “No member of the executive council may make an appearance in a representative capacity, for compensation, before a court of the commonwealth.”,— was considered; and, after debate, the amendment was rejected.

Messrs. Tisei, Tarr, Hedlund and Brown moved to amend the bill by striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the following text:—

“SECTION 1. Section 4 of chapter 268A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out paragraph (c) and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:—

“(c) No state employee shall, otherwise than in the proper discharge of his official duties, act as agent or attorney for anyone other than the commonwealth or a state agency for prosecuting any claim against the commonwealth or a state agency, or as agent or attorney for anyone in connection with any particular matter in which the commonwealth or a state agency is a party or has a direct and substantial interest.

Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $3,000 or by imprisonment for not more than 2 years, or both.

A member of the general court shall not be subject to paragraphs (a) or (c). However, no member of the general court shall personally appear for any compensation other than his legislative salary before any state agency, unless:

- (1) the appearance is before a court of the commonwealth; or
- (2) the appearance is in a quasijudicial proceeding.

For the purposes of this paragraph, a proceeding shall be considered quasi-judicial if both sides are entitled to representation by counsel and such counsel is neither the attorney general nor the counsel for the state agency conducting the proceeding. A proceeding shall not be considered quasi-judicial if the appearance is before a state agency which is an adjudicatory body or is made in connection with a particular matter before a state agency.”

Mr. Rosenberg in the Chair, after debate, the question on adoption of the amendment was determined by call of the yeas and nays, at two minutes past four o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tisei, as follows, to wit (yeas 5 — nays 25) [Yeas and Nays No. 135]:
