The pending amendment, previously recommended by the committee on Ways and Means, substituting a new draft entitled "An Act relative to economic development reorganization" (Senate, No. 2345),-- was considered.

After debate and pending the question on adoption of the amendment, Mr. Tisei moved that all pending amendments be printed in the calendar; and this motion did not prevail.

At twenty-four minutes before two o'clock P.M., at the request of Mr. Tisei, for the purpose of a minority caucus, the President declared a recess; and, at ten minutes past two o'clock P.M., the Senate reassembled, the President in the Chair.

Orders of the Day.

The Orders of the Day were further considered, as follows:

The Senate Bill promoting economic development throughout the Commonwealth (Senate, No. 2331),-- was further considered, the main question being on ordering the bill to a third reading, with the proposed new draft (Senate, No. 2345) pending.

Ms. Candaras and Mr. Brewer moved that the proposed new draft be amended by striking section 64 in its entirety. After debate, the question on adoption of the amendment was determined by a call of the yeas and nays at twenty-two minutes past two o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tisei, as follows, to wit (yeas 1 – nays 35) [Yeas and Nays No. 208]:

Insert Roll Call 208

The yeas and nays having been completed at twenty-seven minutes past two o'clock P.M., the amendment was rejected.

Messrs. Buoniconti and Knapik moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new section:-

“SECTION XX Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary the Undersecretary of the Department of Housing and Community Development shall make a report detailing recommended regulations to prohibit the practice of housing homeless residents in hotels or motels throughout the commonwealth. These recommended guidelines shall include temporary housing alternatives which provide cost savings to the commonwealth as well as a timeline to eliminate such practice within 1 year. All residents currently being sheltered in hotel or motel accommodations shall be required to have access to food refrigeration as well as kitchen facilities including an oven on the premises; and provided further that no municipality shall house a percentage of homeless individuals in hotels or motels which exceeds twice that communities' percentage of total state population. The report shall be submitted to the clerk of the Senate and clerk of the House of Representatives, along with the House and Senate Committees on Ways and Means no later than 30 days following the passage of this act.

Section 2: Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary the Department of Housing and Community Development shall be directed to promulgate regulations which require any individual or family seeking an emergency assistance shelter placement to produce documentation which verifies the commonwealth of Massachusetts as their place of legal residence.

Section 3: Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary a pregnant woman shall not be deemed automatically eligible for placement in a hotel or motel until such time as that woman gives birth. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to limit the eligibility of a pregnant woman to be placed in a homeless shelter during pregnancy.

Section 4: Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary the Department of Housing and Community Development shall be directed to make an investigation and study of all available and unused shelter space throughout the commonwealth. If shelter space is discovered that meets safety and suitability criteria to be determined by the Department of Housing and Community Development and is currently unused, the Department of Housing and Community Development shall be required to issue a request for proposal until such time as sufficient shelter capacity exists so as to eliminate the need for emergency family placements in hotels and motels. Provided further that any individual or family seeking emergency shelter and deemed eligible shall be presented by the Department of Housing and Community Development with not more than 1 shelter option. If said individual or family declines the option presented to them they shall be deemed ineligible to receive emergency shelter for a period of 1 year. Provided further that the Department of Housing and Community Development shall be required to notify the department of health, police department, and school department of any municipality in which an emergency family placement is made. Provided further that the Department of Housing and Community Development shall have the authority, if no shelter space is available and as an alternative to a hotel or motel placement, to place a family seeking emergency assistance in a shelter which exists in the commonwealth that is beyond 20 miles from said family's last known place of legal residence. Provided further that the Department of Housing and Community Development shall be prohibited from placing a family with children under 3 years of age in any hotel or motel which does not make available a crib for such a child which meets applicable safety regulations to be determined by the Department of Children and Families. Provided further that prior to placing any child under the age of 3 years in a hotel or motel, the Department of Housing and Community Development must notify the Department of Children and Families. Within 24 hours of any such hotel or motel placement the Department of Children and Families shall make an inspection of the room and crib provided to ensure the safety of the child. If the hotel or motel in which any such child under the age of 3 years is placed fails to provide such child with a safe and adequate crib as determined by the Department of Children and Families, said hotel may be subject to a fine not to exceed $10,000 per violation.

Section 5: Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the Department of Housing and Community Development shall be required to reimburse on a quarterly basis any community in which an emergency hotel or motel placement is made for all costs associated with busing any school age children from said hotel or motel placement out of district to attend school.

Section 6: Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the Department of Housing and Community Development shall be granted all statutory authority necessary to promulgate regulations consistent with this act.”

After remarks, Mr. Panagiotakos arose to a point of order which, being stated, was that the amendment was beyond the scope of the bill before the Senate.

The President stated that the bill under consideration did not contain the subject matter of the amendment as filed and therefore the amendment is beyond the limited scope of this piece of legislation
Therefore, the point of order was well taken; and the amendment was laid aside.

Messrs. Tisei, Tarr and Knapik moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting at the end thereof the following: -

“SECTION X. Section 148B. (a) For the purpose of this chapter and chapter 151, an individual performing any service in the construction trades, except as authorized under this chapter, shall be considered to be an employee under those chapters unless:—
(1) the individual is free from control and direction in connection with the performance of the service, both under his contract for the performance of service and in fact; and

(2) the service is performed outside the usual course of the business of the employer; and,

(3) the individual is customarily engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, profession or business of the same nature as that involved in the service performed.

(b) For the purpose of this chapter and chapter 151, an individual performing any service, except as authorized under this chapter, shall be considered to be an employee under those chapters unless:—

(1) the individual is free from control and direction in connection with the performance of the service, both under his contract for the performance of service and in fact; and

(2) the service is performed outside the usual course of the business of the employer; or,

“SECTION 9. Said Section 52C of said Chapter 149 its so appearing, is hereby amended by striking lines 37 to 41 and inserting in place thereof the following: -

An employer shall notify an employee within 10 days of the employer placing in the employee’s personnel record any information to the extent that the information is used or has been used or may be used to negatively affect the employee’s qualification for employment, promotion, transfer, additional compensation or disciplinary action. Any employer receiving a written request from an employee shall provide the employee with an opportunity to review his personnel record within five business days of such request. The review shall take place at the place of employment and during normal business hours. An employee shall be given a copy of his personnel record within five business days of submission of a written request for such copy to his employer. An employer shall not be required to allow an employee to review his personnel record on more than two (2) separate occasions in any calendar year, provided however that the notification and review caused by the placing of any negative information in the personnel record shall not be considered on of the two annually permitted reviews.”

The amendment was adopted.

Messrs. Tisei, Tarr, Knapik and Hedlund moved that the proposed new draft be amended by adding at the end there of the following section: -

“SECTION X. Chapter 80 of the acts of 2008 is hereby repealed.”

After debate, the question on adoption of the amendment was determined by a call of the yeas and nays at twenty-four minutes before four o’clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tisei, as follows, to wit (yeas 4 – nays 32) [Yeas and Nays No. 210]:

Insert Roll Call 210

The yeas and nays having been completed at twenty minutes before four o’clock P.M., the amendment was rejected.

Ms. Spilka moved that the proposed new draft be amended in section 35 by inserting after line 1033 the following paragraph:

The yeas and nays having been completed at one minute before four o'clock P.M., the amendment was adopted.

Messrs. Tisei, Tarr, Knapik and Hedlund move to amend the proposed new draft by inserting at the end thereof the following section: -

"SECTION XX. Section 1 of chapter 30A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2004 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out paragraph (6) and inserting in place thereof the following paragraphs:—

(6) 'Regulatory impact statement' means a statement by the promulgating authority which shall, to a reasonable degree of completeness: (i) identify the statutory change, problem, issue or deficiency addressed by the proposed regulation; (ii) identify specifically who is affected and to what extent by the proposed regulation; (iii) identify when such regulation becomes effective, when such regulation will be changed, if known, and how and when the regulation will be reviewed in the future, if at all; (iv) identify costs and/or benefits, including, without limitation, impacts on businesses and jobs in the commonwealth and the impact to the protection of natural resources and public health, if any, paying particular attention to those environmental benefits which may not be easily or immediately quantifiable. Any data, including written information or material, statistics, measurements, calculations or other information used as the basis for the regulation, including any such information provided to the agency by a consultant, vendor or other third party, shall be part of the record and available to the public upon request.

SECTION 2. Section 2 of said chapter 30A, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting after the third paragraph the following paragraph:—

Every agency promulgating rules and regulations shall maintain a notification list of persons and groups who are interested in the agency's rulemaking and who request preliminary notification of agency rulemaking, with such request being renewed annually by said persons or groups. Not later than 30 days prior to the notice of a hearing described above, the agency conducting the hearing shall send a preliminary notification of agency rulemaking to each person or group who has requested preliminary notification of rulemaking and to the appropriate committee of the general court that has jurisdiction for the rule issuing agency, to the house and senate committees on ways and means and to the small business advisory council. The preliminary notification of rulemaking shall: (a) identify the rule to be noticed for hearing and the scope of the proposed rule; (b) provide the statutory authority for such proposed rulemaking; (c) identify the person within the agency responsible for the rulemaking and who can be contacted for more information; and (d) state the purpose for proposing the new regulations or change of regulation and generally, the goal or goals to be obtained.

SECTION 3. Said section 2 of said chapter 30A, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting after the fifth paragraph the following paragraph:—

Agencies may initiate emergency regulatory actions under relevant sections of this chapter without prior compliance with sections 1, 2, 3, and 5; provided, however that compliance shall be initiated as soon as practicable following the emergency action and, in any event, prior to making any emergency action permanent.

SECTION 4. Section 3 of said chapter 30A, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting after the second paragraph the following paragraph:—

Every agency promulgating rules and regulations shall maintain a notification list of persons and groups interested in the agency's rulemaking and who request preliminary notification of agency rulemaking, with such request being renewed annually by said persons and groups. Not later than 30 days prior to the notice described above the agency shall send a preliminary notification of agency rulemaking to each person or group who has requested preliminary notification of agency rulemaking and to the appropriate committee of the general court that has jurisdiction for the rule issuing agency, to the house and senate committees on ways and means and to the small business advisory council. The preliminary notification shall: (a) identify the rule to be noticed and the scope of the proposed rule; (b) provide the statutory authority for such proposed rulemaking; (c) identify the person within the agency responsible for the rulemaking and who can be contacted for further information; and (d) state the purpose for proposing the new regulations or change of regulation and generally, the goal or goals to be obtained.

SECTION 5. Section 5 of said chapter 30A, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking the first sentence of the second paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following:—

No rule or regulation so filed with the state secretary, except those filed for the purpose of setting rates, issuing grants or providing loans, and except those filed by the department of telecommunications and energy or the division of insurance, shall become effective until a regulatory impact statement has been completed, made public during the hearing process described above and is filed with the state secretary. The secretary of the enforcing agency shall review all regulatory impact statements prior to their filing with the state secretary to ensure and certify that a proper methodology and approach was used by the agency submitting said impact statement and to certify that the impact statement as submitted complies with the definition of 'regulatory impact statement' as set forth in section 1 of chapter 30A within 90 days of receipt.

In addition, no rule or regulation so filed, except those filed for the purpose of setting rates, issuing grants or providing loans, and except those filed by the department of telecommunications and energy or the division of insurance, shall become effective until the promulgating agency has filed with the state secretary a statement verifying that said rule or regulation does not conflict with, overlap or duplicate other agencies' rules or regulations."

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Eldridge moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting, after section 136, the following new section:-

"SECTION XX. Section 24 of chapter 40B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in the first paragraph, after the words 'commissioner of highways,' the words 'the director of economic development' and inserting in place thereof the following words: the secretary of housing and economic development."

The amendment was adopted.

Ms. Flanagan and Mr. Rosenberg moved that the proposed new draft be amended in section 28, by striking out, in line 876, the figure "28" and inserting in place thereof the following figure:- "30"; in said section 28, by inserting after the word "Bureau", in line 889, the following words:- " , the Johnny Appleseed Trail Association, Inc., the Hampshire County Tourism and Visitor's Bureau"; and, in section 29, by inserting after the word "Bureau", in line 998, the following words:- " , the Johnny Appleseed Trail Association, Inc., the Hampshire County Tourism and Visitor's Bureau".

“SECTION 5A: Chapter 7 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting, after section 22M, the following section:-

SECTION 22N. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary and to the extent permitted by federal law, a state agency or authority shall establish a preference for the procurement of products or services by businesses, as defined in section 3A of chapter 23A, with their principal place of business in the commonwealth.”; and by inserting after section 71 the following section:-

“SECTION 71A. Chapter 30B of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following section:-

SECTION 22. (a) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary and to the extent permitted by federal law, a governmental body may, by a majority vote, establish a preference for the procurement of products or services by businesses, as defined in section 3A of chapter 23A, with their principal place of business in the commonwealth.

(b) If a governmental body establishes such a preference, the procurement officer responsible for procuring products and services on behalf of the governmental body shall effectuate such preference for the procurement in: (i) advertising for bids, contracts or otherwise and making reasonable efforts to facilitate the purchase of such products or services; and (ii) purchasing products or services by businesses, as defined in said section 3A of said chapter 23A, with its principal place of business in the commonwealth, unless the price of such goods or services exceed, by more than 10 per cent, the price of such goods or services produced by businesses with their principal place of business outside of the commonwealth.”.

After remarks, the question on adoption of the amendment was determined by a call of the yeas and nays at four minutes past four o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Downing, as follows, to wit (yeas 36 – nays 0) [Yeas and Nays No. 212]:

Insert Roll Call 212

The yeas and nays having been completed at eight minutes past four o'clock P.M., the amendment was adopted.

Messrs. Downing and Baddour moved that the proposed new draft be amended in section 104, by inserting after the words “cooling purposes” in line 2888, the following sentence: “For purposes of this paragraph, in determining whether the sole member of a limited liability company treated as a disregarded entity is a manufacturing corporation or a research and development corporation, the attributes and activities of the limited liability company shall be taken into account by the member along with the member's other attributes and activities.”

The amendment was adopted.

Messrs. Knapik, Downing, Tarr and Rosenberg moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new section:-

“Section X: The governor in conjunction with the Massachusetts Broadband Institute shall submit a report to the Legislature no later than December 31, 2010, detailing the Massachusetts Broadband Institute's progress in expanding broadband access in the commonwealth. The report shall detail and explain what the administration has done to ensure broadband access in the commonwealth since chapter 231 of the acts of 2008 became law, notwithstanding any efforts that have been impacted by funding received from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act. The report shall include but not be limited to explanations of the following: which geographic areas have been identified as lacking broadband access; which geographic areas have been prioritized to receive broadband access; how the local economy of these areas has been affected by the lack of this technology and how it will be affected by high-speed internet access; and how the administration will proceed to ensure all citizens of the commonwealth have access to high-speed internet by June 30, 2011.”

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Knapik moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new section:-

“Section XX: Regulations under 225 CMR 14.00 shall be immediately subject to Section 67 through Section 71 and Section 124.

Section XX: Regulations under 225 CMR 14.00 shall not become effective until compliance is reached as prescribed under Section 67 through 71 and Section 124.”

After debate, the amendment was rejected.

Mr. Downing moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting after the last section the following section:

“SECTION XX. Section 1. Section 59 of chapter 40 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition, is hereby amended after paragraph (vii) by inserting the following paragraph:

(vii) provides a report to the city or town clerk and the economic assistance coordinating council detailing the status of the construction laid out in the plan; the current value of the property; the number of jobs created to date due to the plan; the salary of newly created positions; and, the plans, if any, to create additional jobs due to the exemption. A report shall be filed every five years for the term of the tax increment exemption. A final report shall be filed in the final year of the exemption.

Section 2. The executive office of housing and economic development shall amend 760 CMR and the economic assistance coordinating council shall amend 402 CMR to reflect the changes implemented in Section 1.”

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Knapik moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new section:-

“Section X: Chapter 23A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after section 10A the following new section:-

Section 10B. (a) There shall be established and set upon the books of the commonwealth a separate fund to be known as the student entrepreneurial development and economic investment fund, hereinafter referred to as the student investment fund, to which shall be credited any appropriations, bond proceeds, or other monies authorized by the general court and specifically designated to be credited thereto and additional funds designated for deposit to the student investment fund, including any pension funds, federal grants or loans, or private donations made available to the secretary of economic development. The secretary of economic development shall hold the student investment fund in an account separate from other funds or accounts. Amounts credited to the student investment fund shall be available to the investment board as established in subsection (b) to carry out the purposes of subsection (c).

(b) The investment board shall consist of the following members: the secretary of economic development or his designee, who shall serve as chairperson of the board; the chairman of the board of higher education or his designee, who shall serve as the vice-chairperson of the board; the president of the Massachusetts technology development corporation, or his designee; the executive director of commercial ventures and intellectual property, or his designee; two private Massachusetts-based investors to be chosen by the chairperson in consultation with the president of the Massachusetts technology development corporation; one student representative selected by the university of Massachusetts representative to the board of higher education; one student representative selected by the state college representative to the board of higher education; and one student representative selected by the community college representative to the board of higher education. The chairman of the board of higher education shall establish a student application program to aid the representative of the board of higher education in the selection of student members to the board.

Five members of the board shall constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of five members shall be necessary for any action taken by the board. No vacancy in the membership of the board shall impair the right of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the board.

(c) The purpose of the student investment fund shall be to provide an opportunity for interested students to gain experience in entrepreneurialism and early-stage business development while fostering an economic environment that will attract students to the commonwealth and forge a relationship between the public higher education system and the Massachusetts business community with the intent of driving economic growth. Funds made available to the student investment board from the student investment fund shall be used for a grant program administered by the board for a prototype funding of Massachusetts’ student ideas in early development stages; provided however, that the development of such ideas, plans, or business, occur within the commonwealth. The secretary of economic development shall promulgate rules regarding the enforcement and penalties for recipients who relocate outside of the commonwealth. The board shall not be limited in the number of grants distributed to student in any one year; provided however, that the total monetary amount of all grants distributed by the board in a fiscal year shall not exceed twenty percent of the fund’s first year balance. The board shall hold periodic hearings to allow selected students, who have submitted a statement of interest and initial business plan, the opportunity to present a comprehensive business plan describing characteristics and proprietary positions of the student’s products or services; present and future markets for such products or services; potential strategies for the future development and funding of the prototype product or service; a statement of amount, timing and projected use of the capital sought by the student; and a statement of the projected growth in employment or other positive economic impacts. Comprehensive business plans may be written and reviewed in consultation with the Massachusetts technology transfer center at the University of Massachusetts.

(d) The board shall, by January 1 of each year, submit a report of its activities for the preceding fiscal year to the governor, the joint committee on economic development and emerging technologies, and the clerks of the house of representatives and senate. Each report shall set forth a complete financial statement covering its operation during the year and shall also include any requests for additional appropriations.”

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Knapik moved that the proposed new draft be amended by striking out section 1 of Chapter 151 of the General Laws in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

“Section 1. It is hereby declared to be against public policy for any employer to employ any person in an occupation in this commonwealth at an oppressive and unreasonable wage as defined in section two, and any contract, agreement or understanding for or in relation to such employment shall be null and void. A wage of less than $8.00 per hour, in any occupation, as defined in this chapter, shall conclusively be presumed to be oppressive and unreasonable, wherever the term 'minimum wage' is used in this chapter, unless the commissioner has expressly approved or shall expressly approve the establishment and payment of a lesser wage under the provisions of sections seven and nine; provided, further, that an employer may pay an employee who is under the age of 19 and is employed between June 1 and August 31 a wage of no less than $6.00 an hour for the first 90 consecutive days of the employees employment within those dates; provided, further, that the hiring of any employees under the age of 19 does not displace other workers."

After remarks and pending the questions on adoption of the pending amendment (Knapik) and adoption of the recommended Ways and Means new draft (Senate, No. 2345), and pending the main question on ordering the bill to a third reading, on motion of Mr. Berry, the further consideration thereof was postponed until Thursday, April 8.
