A U.S. Air Force veteran and thirty-seven year resident of Buckland, Stef enjoyed his retirement from the Yankee Rowe Nuclear Power Plant by investing his time and energy in the citizens and broader Buckland community. He participated in a diversity of organizations including the Memorial Hall Association, Franklin Regional Council of Governments, TRIAD, Shelburne Senior Center, Shelburne Falls Information Center, and he was a member of the First Congregational Church of Buckland.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 40 years, Roxana, his daughter Rebecca and her partner Kenny Butler of Buckland.
