UNCORRECTED PROOF OF THE JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

Thursday, March 22, 2012.

Met at one minute past one o'clock P.M. (Mr. Brewer in the Chair) .

Distinguished Guests.

There being no objection, the President handed the gavel to Ms. Chandler for the purpose of an introduction. Ms. Chandler then introduced, on the Rostrum, United States Surgeon General, Dr. Regina M. Benjamin. Dr. Benjamin is in Massachusetts this week to celebrate the one year anniversary of the Affordable Care Act and to introduce the National Prevention Strategy, a federal initiative to increase the number of Americans who are healthy at every stage of their lives. Dr. Benjamin addressed the Senate from the Rostrum, signed the guest book and withdrew from the Chamber. She was also the guest of Senator Richard T. Moore and Representative Jason Lewis.

There being no objection, the President handed the gavel to Mr. Knapik for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. Knapik then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, Victoria, Rebecca and Marissa from Girls Incorporated of Holyoke. The girls are participating in Afterschool and Learning Opportunities Advocacy Day at the State House. They were accompanied by Director of After-School Programs Daisy Jimenez and Leadership Specialist Ashley Ewick. The Senate welcomed them with applause and they withdrew from the Chamber.

There being no objection, the President handed the gavel to Ms. Chang-Diaz for the purpose of an introduction. Ms. Chang Diaz then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, the Honorable James Hennigan, Jr. Senator Hennigan first served in the House of Representatives and in 1954 was elected to the Senate, serving until 1964. He was visiting the State House to celebrate his 85th birthday. He addressed the Senate from the Rostrum, was welcomed with applause and withdrew from the Chamber. He was also the guest of Senators Rush and Joyce.

There being no objection, the President handed the gavel to Mr. Tarr for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. Tarr then introduced in the rear of the Chamber, Erin Pratt from Rockport. On September 2, 2011, Erin courageously dove into the rip-tide waters at Good Harbor Beach in Gloucester to rescue a swimmer in distress and return her safely to shore. Only moments after this dramatic rescue, Erin was back in the water to rescue a 10-year-old and 12-year-old brother and sister, placing one of the siblings on a rescue board and firmly securing the other to a rescue tube to lead them back to shore. She was presented with a Senate Resolution on the Rostrum, was applauded for her heroic actions and withdrew from the Chamber.

Communication

A communication from the Honorable Bruce E. Tarr, Senate Minority Leader, announcing (pursuant to Section 190 of Chapter 68 of the Acts of 2011) the appointment of Mr. David Abdoo of Lawrence to the Special Commission to make an investigation and study of the need to incentivize the Commonwealth's college scholarship system,-- was placed on file.

“SECTION 48. Chapter 209A of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following section:-

Section 11. (a) Whenever the court issues a temporary or permanent vacate, stay away, restraining or no contact order or a judgment under section 18, 34B or 34C of chapter 208; section 32 of chapter 209; section 3, 4 or 5 of this chapter; section 15 or 20 of chapter 209C; or section 3, 4, 5, 6 or 7 of chapter 258E; or a temporary restraining order or preliminary or permanent injunction relative to a domestic relations, child custody, domestic abuse or abuse prevention proceeding, the court may order the possession, care and control of any domesticated animal owned, possessed, leased, kept or held by either party or a minor child residing in the household to the plaintiff or petitioner. The court may order the defendant to refrain from abusing, threatening, taking, interfering with, transferring, encumbering, concealing, harming or otherwise disposing of such animal.

(b) A party to any of the proceedings listed in subsection (a) may petition the court for an order authorized by subsection (a).

(c) Whenever the court issues a warrant for a violation of a temporary or permanent vacate, stay away, restraining or no contact order or of a judgment issued under section 18, 34B or 34C of chapter 208; section 32 of chapter 209; section 3, 4 or 5 of this chapter; section 15 or 20 of chapter 209C; or section 3, 4, 5, 6 or 7 of chapter 258E, or otherwise becomes aware that an outstanding warrant for such a violation has been issued against a person before the court, the judge may make a finding, based upon the totality of the circumstances, as to whether there exists an imminent threat of bodily injury to any party to such judgment or the petitioner of any such protective order, a member of the petitioner’s family or household or to a domesticated animal belonging to such petitioner or to a member of the petitioner’s family or household. If the court makes a finding that such an imminent threat of bodily injury to a person or domesticated animal exists, the court shall notify the appropriate law enforcement officials of such finding and such law enforcement officials shall take all necessary actions to execute any such outstanding warrant as soon as is practicable.

SECTION 49. The chief justice of administration and management of the trial court department shall amend the relevant complaint forms for chapters 208, 209A, 209C and 258E of the General Laws, or prescribe a new form, to incorporate a petition for an order under section 11 of chapter 209A of the General Laws, which shall be in such form and language to permit a plaintiff to prepare and file such complaint pro se.”

After debate, the question on adoption of the amendment was determined by a call of the yeas and nays, at fourteen minutes before three o’clock P.M., on motion of Ms. Clark, as follows, to wit (yeas 33 – nays 0) [Yeas and Nays No. 161]:

On motion of Mr. Tarr,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M., and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Adjournment in Memory of William I. Randall

The Senator from Norfolk and Middlesex, Ms. Spilka, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of former Senator and Chief Justice of the Land Court William I. Randall.

Judge William I. Randall, Age 96, of Longboat Key Florida died March 4, 2012. He was born in Framingham on September 13, 1915 where he lived most of his life. He lived a full life and enjoyed being with his many friends and family up until the end. The family home on Edgell Road was always full of friends and neighbors; many of whom considered it almost a second home. He will be remembered as a caring man who helped many people throughout his life. He had a great memory and was a terrific storyteller.

He was a graduate of Framingham High School, Yale University, and Harvard Law School. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he returned to Framingham to form Sheridan and Randall Attorneys at Law. He served as a Selectman from 1947 to 1950. In 1951 he was elected to the Massachusetts General Court as a member of the House of Representatives. In 1965 he was elected to the Massachusetts Senate and served until 1970. He was appointed Chief Justice of the Massachusetts Land Court in 1971 and retired in 1985. In 1985 he was awarded an honorary JD degree from New England School of Law. In 2004, he relocated to Longboat Key, Florida.

He is predeceased by his wife Harriet in 1991 and is survived by his wife, Clare Goss Randall; his three children, William, Jonathan and Eleanor (Deedee); his stepsons Edward and Tyson; 6 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of William I. Randall, at thirteen minutes past three o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Brewer, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
