By inserting after section 4 the following section:-

“SECTION 4A. Chapter 10 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 35PP the following section:-

Section 35QQ. (a) There shall be established and set up on the books of the commonwealth a Financial Literacy Trust Fund to encourage financial literacy and education for residents, institutions, community organizations and entities that will promote financial literacy. The fund shall be administered by the state treasurer, in consultation with the board of trustees established under subsection (b). The fund shall accept private contributions, publicly or privately-funded grants and funds appropriated by the state or federal government. No expenditure from the fund shall cause the fund to be in deficiency at the close of the fiscal year. Monies deposited in the fund that are unexpended at the end of the fiscal year shall not revert to the General Fund and shall be available for expenditure in the subsequent fiscal year. The fund shall be an expendable trust fund and shall not be subject to appropriation or allotment.

(b) There shall be established a board of trustees to consist 20 members, 2 of whom shall be appointed by the senate president and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate; 2 of whom shall be appointed by speaker of the house and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader of the house; the state treasurer or a designee, who shall serve as chair; the attorney general or a designee; the undersecretary of consumer affairs and business regulation or a designee; the secretary of education or a designee; the commissioner of elementary and secondary education or a designee; the secretary of housing and economic development or a designee; and 8 persons to be appointed by the governor who shall have experience in fundraising, education or financial services. All non-elected members shall serve for terms of 3 years, but they may be reappointed. The board of trustees shall develop by-laws and may develop regulations for the implementation of the trust. The trust may expend funds for the purposes of administering the fund, which may include an annual independent audit of the financial activities of the fund. The trust may also enter into contracts with private corporations for the purposes of managing and implementing the programmatic fiduciary or administrative goals of the trust, subject to the approval of the board of trustees. The trust may also, to the extent necessary, create a 501(c)3 corporation to fulfill the purposes of the trust. The state treasurer shall annually report to the general court all programmatic and financial activities and balances of the fund on or before the last Wednesday in December.

(c) Notwithstanding any general or special law or rule or regulation to the contrary, the state treasurer, members of the board of trustees or their designees shall maximize the balance in the trust by soliciting private donations, gifts, grants and bequests of the trust, including direct and indirect fundraising.”;

ABSENT OR NOT VOTING

Rush, Michael F.— 1.

The yeas and nays having been completed at thirteen minutes past four o'clock P.M., the bill was passed to be enacted, two-thirds of the members present having agreed to pass the same, and it was signed by the President and laid before the Governor for his approbation.

Order.

Mr. Tarr presented an Order relative to fiscal year '12 local aid resolution (Senate, No. 1889).

The rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Tolman, and the order was considered forthwith.

After debate and pending the question on adoption of the order, Mr. Knapik moved that the matter be laid upon the table; and, in accordance with the provisions of Senate Rule 24, the consideration of the motion to lay on the table was postponed, without question, until the next session.

Report of a Committee.

By Mr. Welch, for the committee on Municipalities and Regional Government, on petition, a Bill relative to the filling of vacancies in the office of mayor of the city of Revere (Senate, No. 1877) [Local approval received],-- ought to pass.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Petruccelli, and the bill was read a second time, ordered to a third reading, read a third time and passed to be engrossed.

Sent to the House for concurrence.

PAPER FROM THE HOUSE

Engrossed Bill.

An engrossed Bill providing for the appointment of a treasurer-collector in the town of Barre (see Senate, No. 1873) (which originated in the Senate), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage, was passed to be enacted and signed by the Acting President (Mr. Hart) and laid before the Governor for his approbation.

Moment of Silence.

At the request of the Chair (Mr. Hart) the members, guests and employees stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of Thomas J. Butler of South Boston.

Recess.

There being no objection, at twenty-six minutes before five o'clock P.M., the Chair (Mr. Hart) declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair; and, at a quarter past six o'clock P.M., the Senate reassembled, Mr. Petruccelli in the Chair (having been appointed by the President, under authority conferred by Senate Rule 4, to perform the duties of the Chair).

Reports of Committees.

By Mr. Berry, for the committees on Rules of the two branches, acting concurrently, that Joint Rule 12 be suspended on the Senate petition of Stanley C. Rosenberg, Cory Atkins and Richard T. Moore for legislation to provide for the election of registry of deeds by county.

The rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Tarr, and the report was considered forthwith; Joint Rule 12 was suspended; and the petition (accompanied by bill) was referred to the committee on Election Laws.

By Mr. Berry, for the committees on Rules of the two branches, acting concurrently, that Joint Rule 12 be suspended on the Senate petition of Jennifer L. Flanagan for legislation relative to behavioral emergency services.

The rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Tarr, and the report was considered forthwith; Joint Rule 12 was suspended; and the petition (accompanied by bill) was referred to the committee on Health Care Financing.

Severally sent to the House for concurrence.

PAPERS FROM THE HOUSE.

Petitions were severally referred, in concurrence, as follows, to wit:

Petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 3326 ) of Linda Dorcena Forry for legislation to establish a sick leave bank for Yvonne B. Smith, an employee of the Trail Court; and

Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Tarr,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M., and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Adjournment in Memory of Thomas J. Butler

The Senator from Plymouth and Barnstable, Ms. Murray, and the Senator from Suffolk, Mr. Hart, requested that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of Thomas J. Butler.

Thomas J. Butler of South Boston was a fixture in state government and more importantly of South Boston; Tommy was able to bridge government affairs and community concerns with his trademark smile and deeply rooted sense of compassion.

Tommy's positive outlook colored everything he did and everyone he knew... If someone came to him with a problem or concern it was never met with a no but a let's figure out how to help you out.

Tommy never looked back and never let circumstances get in the way of moving forward. Even as he was dealt medical challenges, he never lost the twinkle in his eye and that distinctive laugh you could hear from across the room.

His South Boston community remained a priority throughout his life and was only second to his dedication to his family – wife Helen, son Thomas, Jr., daughter Jillian, brother Edward and sister Donna.

The passing of Tommy Butler leaves each and every person whose life he touched with a great sense of loss, but his positive spirit will live on in each of our memories. The thoughts and prayers of a grateful community and Commonwealth are with the Butler family.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Thomas J. Butler, at twenty-three minutes past six o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
