Adjournment in Memory of the Victims in Connecticut

The Senator from Middlesex, Mr. Donnelly, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of the innocent children, teachers and school administrators who were horrifically murdered this past Friday at Sandy Brook Elementary School in Newtown, Connecticut.

Twenty 6 and 7 year-olds were gunned down in their classrooms during what should have been a normal day of learning. Six educators were killed while performing the most important job of educating and caring for our future generation. We mourn the loss of these victims of such a senseless act of violence and may we hold those affected by this tragedy close to our hearts.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of the victims in Connecticut, at twenty-eight minutes past eleven o'clock A.M., on motion of Mr. Ross, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Thursday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
