NAYS — 0.

The yeas and nays having been completed at twenty minutes past two o'clock P.M., the bill (Senate, No. 1172, amended) was passed to be engrossed.

Sent to the House for concurrence.

The Senate Bill relative to veterans' allowances, labor, outreach, and recognition (Senate, No. 1876),-- was read a second time.

Pending the question on ordering the bill to a third reading, the amendment previously recommended by the committee on Ways and Means that the bill be amended by substituting a new draft with the same title (Senate, No. 1878),-- was considered.

At six minutes before three o'clock P.M., Mr. Tarr doubted the presence of a quorum. The Chair (Mr. Rosenberg), having determined that a quorum was not in attendance, then directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to secure the presence of a quorum. Subsequently, at five minutes before three o'clock P.M., a quorum was declared present.

Messrs. McGee, Tarr, DiDomenico, Kennedy, Ms. Clark and Ms. Donoghue moved to amend the proposed new draft by inserting the following sections: -

“SECTION XX. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, any retired member of a retirement system, who is a veteran who served in the armed forces of the United States and who retired prior to July 24, 1996 shall be entitled to have his retirement allowance recalculated based upon additional credit for active service in the armed services to the United States. Such creditable service shall not be construed to include service for more than four years provided further, that such creditable shall not be allowed for any period of active service for which said veteran has received credit pursuant to paragraph (h) of subsection (1) of section 4 of chapter thirty-two of the General Laws or for which said veteran receives a federal military pension and provided further, that the amount does not exceed the eighty percent allowed to retire. This act shall apply to Massachusetts National Guard and Active Reserve personnel, both former and present. Creditable service time, both enlisted and commissioned may be applied toward retirement on a ratio of five years guard service or five years active reserve service substitutable for each year of active service.

SECTION XX. For the retirement system of any political subdivision, the provisions of this act shall take effect on the effective date of this act by majority vote of the board of such system and by the local legislative body. For the purposes of this paragraph local Legislative body shall mean a town meeting for a town system, the city council subject to the provisions of its charter for a city system, the county commissioners for a county system, the district members for a district system and the governing body of an authority for an authority system. Acceptance shall be deemed to have occurred upon the filing of a certification of 160 Chapter 71 such vote with the commissioner. Members retired prior to July 24, 1996 of a retirement system eligible for said creditable service under this act shall become eligible for said creditable service the month following the acceptance of this act by the local legislative body. Terms used in this act shall have the same meaning as those terms defined in section one of chapter thirty-two of the General Laws.”

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Downing moved to amend the proposed new draft by adding the following new section: -

“SECTION X. Section 33 of chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting in line 146, at the end of clause 21, the following sentence:- No fee shall be collected for a license or renewal thereof if the applicant is a veteran of the armed forces as defined by clause 43 of section 7 of chapter 4. The registrar shall annually report to the secretary of the department of veterans services the number of individuals qualifying under this section. The registry of motor vehicles shall promulgate such regulations as necessary to allow the department of veterans services use of the information gathered to improve, develop and deploy services.”

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Richard Moore moves to amend the proposed new draft in section 23, by adding the following subsection:-

“(f) Veterans benefits and services officers or agents shall not disclose any information transmitted in confidence by and between a veteran and a veterans service officer or agent, except: when the disclosure is made for the benefit of the veteran; the disclosure of such information is reasonably necessary to the assistance of the veteran; under lawful order. Such communications shall include all information received by the veterans' service officer or agent which arises out of and in the course of such assistance, including, but not limited to, reports, records, working papers or memoranda.”

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Keenan moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting after the word “injury” in line 33 the following: “, to include injuries related to post-traumatic stress”; and by striking from line 352 the word “disorder” and inserting in place thereof the following: “injury”.

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Keenan moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting the following new section: -

“SECTION XX: Section 6B of Chapter 115 of the General Laws is hereby amended in lines 18, 26 and 33 by striking out the figures ‘$2,000’ and inserting in place thereof the figures ‘$2,500’.”

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Keenan moved that the proposed new draft be amended in section 28, by striking subsection (d) and inserting in place thereof the following:

“(d) The council shall perform and make recommendations pertaining to how best to operationalize and quantify the following duties, including, but not limited to: (i) examine and evaluate the effectiveness of veterans’ suicide prevention policies; (ii) examine and evaluate the effectiveness of resilience training for veterans’ personnel; (iii) develop recommendations on ways in which veterans’ support service needs may be promptly assessed upon return from deployment; (iv) develop recommendations for methods by which the commonwealth may identify, evaluate and refer servicemembers returning to civilian life post-deployment for assistance with education, employment, healthcare, housing and other services; (v) provide recommendations for improving communication between mental health support services and veterans who may benefit from such services; (vi) provide recommendations for improving observation and treatment plans for returning veterans; (vii) develop recommendations for providing mental health counseling services to combat the effects of post-traumatic stress injuries for post-deployment veterans (viii) examine ways in which the commonwealth can reduce stress, anxiety and depression among returning veterans, and among family members of returning veterans; (ix) provide recommendations on improving health access assistance; and (x) identify the needs of women veterans relative to issues including, but not limited to, compensation, rehabilitation, outreach, health care, education and other issues facing women veterans in the community. The council may hold public hearings to assist in the collection and evaluation of data and testimony.”

After remarks, the question on adoption of the amendment was determined by a call of the yeas and nays at one minute past three o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Keenan, as follows, to wit (yeas 37 — nays 0) [Yeas and Nays No. 192]:

At the request of the Chair (Mr. Keenan), the members, guests and staff stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of Gloria A. Noble of Quincy.

Order Adopted.

On motion of Ms. Chang-Diaz,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Tuesday next at eleven o'clock A.M., and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Adjourn In Memory of Gloria A. Noble

Mr. Keenan in the Chair, there being no objection, during consideration of the Orders of the Day, the Senator from Norfolk and Plymouth, Mr. Keenan, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in memory of Gloria A. Noble of Quincy.

Gloria A. Noble of Quincy passed away on October 1, 2013 at the age of 87.

Gloria was born and raised in Dorchester. Shortly after her marriage to Robert Noble, with whom she would spend the next 63 years of her life, they moved to their beloved Quincy.

In Quincy they would raise their four children, while committing themselves to their community. Gloria was past Commander of The Southeastern Chapter of the American Ex-Prisoners of War, board member of Domestic Violence Ended/Dove, board member of the Good Shepherd Maria Droste Agency counseling services, member of the Wollaston Mothers Club, a twenty-five year member of The Quincy Christmas Festival Committee, a ten year member of Quincy's First Night Committee, a longtime member of the Quincy Historical Society, a member of Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library, a volunteer at the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, and a volunteer for the Family Autism Center. Gloria was also an active parishioner of Saint Albert The Great Church in Weymouth.

Beyond her charitable involvement, Gloria was actively politically. She served as President of the South Shore Women's Political Caucus, and was a member of Quincy Democratic City Committee.

Over the years, Gloria, a dedicated Democrat, was a valued, highly sought after volunteer on many local, state and national political campaigns.

Once committed to a group, cause, or campaign, Gloria was a tireless worker, advocate, organizer and leader. With a twinkle in her eye, she brought an indefatigable spirit and feistiness to all that she undertook.

She and her husband Bob were the recipients of many awards, among them, Jewish War Veterans Citizen of the Year, The Quincy Sun Citizen of the Year, Elizabeth "Betty" Swanton Community Service Award and the Dennis F. Ryan Democrat of the Year award.

Above all else, Gloria was committed to her family. A devoted wife, and a caring and involved mother, grandmother and great grandmother and sister, her love of family knew no bounds. She is survived by her husband of 63 years, Bob; by her four children, Robert G. Noble, Jr., Alicia Gardner, Nancy Noble and Andrea White, and their spouses; by her ten grandchildren; by her nine great grandchildren; by her sister Alicia Gardner, brother in law Paul Noble, and sisters in law Marie Stapleton and Josephine Noble; and by nineteen nieces and nephews.

At her funeral, Father James Hawker, the celebrant, reflected on the meaning of "Gloria in excelsis Deo," noting that Gloria's life did give glory to God.

As the last prayers were offered over her, the sun broke through the gray clouds, streamed through the stained glass windows of St. Albert's, and shone the light of earthly peace upon all those touched by the good will of Gloria Noble. May she now rest in eternal peace.

Subsequently, the President in the Chair, as a mark of respect in memory of Gloria A. Noble, at seven minutes before five o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Brewer, the Senate adjourned to meet again Tuesday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
