Adjourn In Memory of Joe “Sarge” Komola

The Senator from Essex and Middlesex, Mr. Tarr, and the Senator from Plymouth and Norfolk, Mr. Hedlund, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in memory of former us Army First Sergeant and Massachusetts Motorcycle Association member Joe “Sarge” Komola.

Joe “Sarge” Komola, died on February 25, 2014 at the age of 73 in Waltham following a long illness.

Most knew “Sarge” as a member of the Massachusetts Motorcycle Association, which also deeply mourns his passing with everlasting gratitude for his service to our country and motorcyclists’ rights causes.

With over 40 years Active Duty and Reserve time with the US Army, “Sarge” still managed to accumulate approximately 17,000 miles per year on a bike until recent health issues slowed him down. A motorcycle enthusiast for more than 30 years, “Sarge” became a tireless fighter for motorcyclists’ rights and safety. Beginning as Middlesex County Representative, “Sarge” held numerous positions with the MMA including District I Representative, District I Manager, Director of Safety and Awareness, and Vice Chairman. “Sarge” also served as the State Representative for the Motorcycle Riders Foundation based in Washington, D.C., and remained active in their regional and national conferences.

“Sarge” was a permanent fixture at the Massachusetts State House during his tenure with the MMA and was the only one who had his own “personal” motorcycle parking space reserved just for him. He knew everyone on the “hill”, and everyone knew “Sarge”.

In 2011, in recognition for his long and tireless commitments to the riders of the Commonwealth, “Sarge” was awarded the MMA’s highest award, the Brian Clark Lifetime Achievement Award. Overcome with emotion, “Sarge” briefly commented, “this has been my life’s passion – to serve others.”

Without question, “Sarge” always had the best interests of the riders of this state in his heart and worked tirelessly to defend their right to ride free and safely. He is sorely missed by all. Even when his health no longer allowed him to attend MMA Board meetings; and do the things he used to, he insisted on being involved in some manner. Elected unanimously by the MMA Board of Directors to serve as the MMA’s Statewide Sergeant-At-Arms, “Sarge” continued to hold that position until his passing. “Sarge” will forever be in our hearts.

“Sarge” is survived by his daughters, Kelly Komola and Jennifer Komola, and his grandchildren, Cadence, Victoria and Anthony.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of Joe “Sarge” Komola, at twenty-one minutes before three o'clock P.M., on motion of Ms. Forry, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
