Adjourn In Memory of Robert Theodore Miglierina

The Senator from Essex, Mr. McGee presented a request that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so as a mark of respect to the memory of Robert Theodore Miglierina.

Robert Theodore Miglierina of Lynn, died unexpectedly at his home on Saturday, October 25th, 2014. He was the beloved husband of Laura Jane Miglierina, with whom he shared 27 years of marriage. Born and raised in Dorchester, he was the son of the late Theodore and Teresa Miglierina, and was a graduate of Wentworth Institute in Boston. He had lived in Lynn for the past 27 years.

Bob worked as facilities manager and fleet manager for Aquanor Marketing in Boston, and was later employed by the City of Lynn until his retirement. He was a campaign worker for many state and local political campaigns. While he was best known for being a handy man and building lawn signs, Bob was politically savvy and passionate about public policy. He spent countless hours debating topics of the day with family, friends, and the politicians he helped get elected.

Bob's other passion was boating with his son and family. He loved spending time with his family, and was the center of attention at all family gatherings, telling stories and making everyone smile. He was the "go-to" guy for anyone who needed help. Bob will be greatly missed.

In addition to his wife, Laura, he is survived by his son, Christopher Robert Miglierina of Lynn; his sisters, Ann Marie Tyrell and her husband John of North Carolina, and Barbara Doerre and her husband George of New York; his father-in-law, George Harmer of Peabody; sister-in-law, Kathy Favazza of Peabody; brothers-in-law, Gregg Harmer and his wife Paula of Lynn and John Harmer and his wife April of Vermont; as well as several nieces and nephews. He was the son-in-law of the late Marion Harmer.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of Robert Theodore Miglierina, at eight minutes past twelve o'clock noon, on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
