Adjourn In Memory of Officer Ashley Guindon

The Senator from Hampden, Mr. Welch, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of Officer Ashley Guindon of Woodbridge, Virginia.

Officer Ashley Guindon, age 28, was killed in the line of duty on February 27, 2016 on her first patrol as a police officer, having been sworn in to the Prince William Police Department only the day before.

Officer Guindon was born in Springfield and lived in Agawam before her family settled in Merrimack, New Hampshire. She graduated from Merrimack High School, where she was a cheerleader and a member of Junior ROTC, in 2005, and from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University in 2011. She served her country for six years in the Marine Corps Reserves, during which time she continued to pursue her interest in aeronautics.

Officer Guindon began her law enforcement career on May 27, 2012 with the Prince William County, Virginia Police Department as an intern with the Special Victims Unit, and graduated with honors from the Police Academy in June of 2015. After taking a short leave of absence, she returned to the Prince William Police Department and was sworn in February 26, 2016.

In addition to her professional accomplishments, Officer Guindon will be remembered for her kindness and compassion, and for her love for animals, fashion, and volunteering in her community.

Officer Guindon is survived by her mother, Sharon Nowak Guindon, and predeceased by her father, David Guindon, an Air National Guardsman who served in Iraq. She also leaves her grandmother, Dorothy Guindon, and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Officer Guindon was laid to rest next to her father in West Springfield on March 7, 2016.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of Officer Ashley Guindon, at seven minutes past four o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
