Adjournment in Memory of Ronald Knudsen.

The Senator from Middlesex and Norfolk, Ms. Creem, requested that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of Ronald Knudsen of Newton.

Ronald Knudsen died March 29, 2015.

A highly respected violinist, conductor and educator, Mr. Knudsen believed in bringing his passion for classical music to as many individuals and communities as possible.

Mr. Knudsen moved from the Midwest to Boston in 1965 to join the Boston Symphony's violin section, from which he retired in 2013. He was a violin soloist with many of Greater Boston's musical organizations, including the Boston Pops, Brockton Symphony, Newton Symphony and Worcester orchestras, and with both the Baltimore and Detroit symphony orchestras. Mr. Knudsen also organized numerous music groups, playing with and conducting a variety of chamber and Pops, including the Boston Pops, and orchestras throughout New England. He was also music director of the Brockton and Newton symphonies prior to becoming music director of Newton's Philharmonia Orchestra.

He received numerous civic awards including the Newton Pride Award for Excellence in the Arts and the Newton-Needham Chamber of Commerce Appreciation Award and acclaim from the press, orchestra and audiences for his programming, conducting skill and ability to bring professional standards to non-professional orchestras.

Ronald Knudsen will be deeply missed by his wife of 40 years, Adrienne Hartzell Knudsen, his two children from his previous marriage to Kay Knudsen, his four grandchildren, countless music aficionados, and the Newton community.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Ronald Knudsen, at nineteen minutes past eleven o'clock A.M., on motion of Mr. Hedlund, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
