>THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
MASSACHUSETTS SENATE

William Welch,
Clerk of the Senate
State House
Boston, MA 02133

May 6, 2016

Dear Mr. Clerk:

On Thursday, May 5, 2016, I was unable to attend the formal Senate session. Had I been present, I would have voted in the affirmative on the following questions:

- Roll call #289, on adoption of amendment #2 to S. 2258;
- Roll call #290, on sustaining the ruling of the chair that amendment #10 to S. 2258 is unconstitutional; and
- Roll call #291, on passing S. 2258 to be engrossed.

I respectfully request that a copy of this correspondence be printed in the journal for the next session. Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,
MICHAEL J. BARRETT
THIRD MIDDLESEX

On motion of Mr. Tarr, the above communication was ordered printed in the Journal of the Senate.

Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Tarr,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Thursday next at eleven o'clock A.M., in a full formal session with a calendar.

Moment of Silence.

At the request of the Chair (Mr. McGee), the members, guests and staff stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of Robert David Bowes, Sr.

Adjourn In Memory of Robert David Bowes, Sr.

The Senator from Essex, Mr. McGee, moves that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of Robert David Bowes, Sr. of Lynn.

Mr. McGee in the Chair, Attorney Robert David Bowes, Sr., an attorney in the office of senate counsel, a beloved husband, father, grandfather, stepfather, foster father and godfather, the consummate family man, passed away on Thursday, February 25, 2016 at the age of 87.

Robert Bowes was born in Charlestown, Massachusetts on March 14, 1928 and grew up in Worcester before moving to Salem, where he attended Salem High School. Bob enlisted in the United States Navy during World War II as a fire control technician and received the World War II victory medal and the American Area Campaign Medal before being honorably discharged at the rank of Seaman First Class.

Mr. Bowes began his college studies at New England College in Henniker, New Hampshire before transferring in 1952 to Suffolk University where he studied journalism. Bob served as a dedicated journalist for several local area publications while attending the evening program at Suffolk University Law School, graduating magna cum laude in 1963. He was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar in 1964 and practiced law, both privately and as a government attorney, until his passing.

Attorney Bowes loved performing in the courtroom but he also had an overpowering, fervent belief that service to the community was an imperative. He loved the city of Salem and his country and, motivated by John F. Kennedy, he ventured into politics. Bob handed out yard signs around Salem for then presidential candidate John F. Kennedy. He also waged an unsuccessful run himself for Salem ward councilor but that journey led to a lifelong friendship with the Honorable Kevin Harrington of Salem for whom he would manage several successful campaigns for city and state offices. When Kevin Harrington was named senate majority leader in the Massachusetts senate, Mr. Bowes served as his Chief of Staff. When Kevin Harrington was elected President of the Senate, Mr. Bowes was named Counsel to the Senate President, a position he held until his appointment as assistant senate counsel in March of 1978. Attorney Bowes served as Assistant Senate Counsel for nearly 40 years.

Robert Bowes' success in law was eclipsed by his success as a parent. He and his wife, Millie, with whom he shared 30 years of marriage, opened up their hearts and their homes to children and families in need. He prided himself on his foster parenting skills and spent his lifetime taking in, caring for and raising many foster children, not only through various agencies such as the Department of Children and Families, Casey Family Services and the Plummer Home, but also by word-of-mouth when a situation presented itself. He led all of his children by example. He was tough but he was a strong and compassionate, god-fearing gentleman. He left no child behind, long before that phrase was coined, and his passing left a legion of loving and loyal family members, friends and colleagues who were privileged to have been a part of his long and distinguished life.

Mr. Bowes is survived by his dedicated and loving wife and co-parent, Mildred Feleice Hollingsworth-Bowes of Lynn, his sister Eleanor Morency of Vermont, his children, Robert David Bowes, Jr. and his wife Frances of Sanford, North Carolina, Marilyn Bowes of Danvers; Judith Saidah and her husband Nicholas of Medford, Claudia Bowes and her life partner Frank Smith of Pelham, NH, Donna Marie Zerola, S. L. Hollingsworth, Chris Ann Hollingsworth and Andrew Thomas Davies, all of Lynn; and Attorney Gary Zerola of Boston, his 13 grandchildren: Robert David Bowes, III, Jessica Amaya, John Jacob Bowes, Deanna, Albert and Jonathan Saidah, Amanda and Michael Northrup, Raymond, Robert and Christyne Kennedy, David Cecil Hollingsworth, Hannah and Abigail Zerola, Arianna Rivera and Anthony Morales, 7 great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. Bob was previously married to the late Florence (Morgan) Bowes, formerly of Salem. He was predeceased by his siblings, Attorney Thomas Bowes Sr., Patricia Raynes and Linda Aucone..

Mr. DiDomenico in the Chair, accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of Robert David Bowes, Sr., at twenty-seven minutes past eleven o'clock A.M., on motion of Mr. McGee, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Thursday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
