UNCORRECTED PROOF OF THE JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

Thursday, July 7, 2016.

Met at four minutes past one o'clock P.M.

The Senator from Essex and Middlesex, Mr. Tarr, led the President, members, guests and staff in the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Distinguished Guests.

There being no objection, the President introduced, in the Senate Gallery, New Hampshire Senate Clerk Tammy Wright and her assistant, Ann Knapp. The Senate welcomed them with applause and they withdrew from the Gallery. They were guests of Senate Clerk William Welch.

There being no objection, during consideration of the Orders of the Day, the President handed the gavel to Mr. Pacheco for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. Pacheco then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, Austrian Consul General of New York, Dr. Georg Heindl. Dr. Heindl was recognized for his multiple tours of duty and service to Austria. He addressed the Senate from the Rostrum, signed the guest book and was presented a painting of the State House. The Senate welcomed him with applause and he withdrew from the Chamber.

There being no objection, during consideration of the Orders of the Day, the President handed the gavel to Mr. DiDomenico for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. DiDomenico then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, Joe Hickey from Everett. Mr. Hickey was recognized for his two tours of duty during the Vietnam War and for his tireless work advocating for veterans. He has served the city of Everett as Council President and also as the Everett Veterans Commissioner for the past eight years. The Senate thanked him for his service and congratulated him on his retirement. He was accompanied by his wife, Marianne and son, John.

There being no objection, during consideration of the Orders of the Day, the President handed the gavel to Mr. Welch for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. Welch then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, a Judge in the Justice of the Peace Courts in Dallas County, Texas, Sara Martinez. Judge Martinez was elected in 2014 and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Chicano Studies from Loyola Marymount University and Juris Doctorate from the University of Southern California School of Law. Prior to her election, Judge Martinez ran a successful solo law practice in the areas of criminal and family law and served as a Dallas County Public Defender. The Senate welcomed her with applause and she withdrew from the Chamber.

There being no objection, during consideration of the Orders of the Day, the President handed the gavel to Mr. Tarr for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. Tarr then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, Jackson Altieri and his mother, Nicole from Gloucester. Jackson received a heart transplant in 2007 at the age of 18 months, and was recognized for recently having run a 5k race at the age of 10. The Senate welcomed them with applause and they withdrew from the Chamber.

There being no objection, during consideration of the Orders of the Day, the President handed the gavel to Ms. L'Italien for the purpose of an introduction. Ms. L'Italien then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, Kate and Scott Middlemiss and their two children, Jack and Grace. Jack has a heart condition known as cardiomyopathy and is currently on a list awaiting a heart transplant. The family was recognized for starting The Joseph Middlemiss Big Heart Foundation, in honor of their son Joseph Middlemiss who passed away at the age of 6 from cardiomyopathy. The goal of the foundation is to contribute research and spread awareness of child heart conditions, while providing financial, social and emotional assistance to families. The Senate welcomed them with applause and they withdrew from the Chamber. They were accompanied by Representatives Ferrante of Gloucester and Garry of Dracut.

Moore for legislation to establish a sick leave bank for William Horohoe, an employee of the Massachusetts Department of Transportation,-- was referred in concurrence, under suspension of Joint Rule 12, to the committee on Public Service.

Engrossed Bills.

The following engrossed bills (both of which originated in the House), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage, were severally passed to be enacted and were signed by the President and laid before the Governor for his approbation, to wit:

Further regulating disclosure requirements for expenditures made to support or oppose candidates by certain committees (see House, No. 541); and Authorizing the Division of Capital Asset Management and Maintenance to convey certain parcels of land in the town of Framingham (see House, No. 3939, changed and amended).

The Senate Bill authorizing the town of Athol to establish a special fund for the rehabilitation of certain properties (Senate, No. 31),-- came from the House passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, with an amendment, in section 1 by adding the following paragraph:

“The town manager shall annually report to the board of selectmen on the total amount of receipts and expenditures for the fund for the prior fiscal year and for the current fiscal year through December 31 or such later date as the board of selectmen may, by vote, determine, together with such other information as the board of selectmen may, by vote, require.”

The rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Pacheco, and the House amendment was considered forthwith and adopted, in concurrence (as corrected BTR).

The Senate Bill establishing a special fund for recaptured funds from demolition liens or related grants in the town of Athol (Senate, No. 32),-- came from the House passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, with an amendment, in section 1 by adding the following paragraph:

“The town manager shall annually report to the board of selectmen on the total amount of receipts and expenditures for the fund for the prior fiscal year and for the current fiscal year through December 31 or such later date as the board of selectmen may, by vote, determine, together with such other information as the board of selectmen may, by vote, require.”

The rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Pacheco, and the House amendment was considered forthwith and adopted, in concurrence (as corrected BTR).

Report of a Committee.

Mr. Montigny, for the committee on Rules, reported that the following matter be placed in the Orders of the Day for Tuesday, July 12, 2016:

The Senate Bill relative to solar drying of laundry (Senate, No. 1056) (Mr. Barrett gives notice that he will move to amend the bill by substituting a new draft with the same title, Senate, No. 2408).

Order Adopted.

Mr. Barrett offered the following order, to wit:

Ordered, That notwithstanding Senate Rule 7 or any other rule to the contrary, the Senate Bill relative to solar drying of laundry (Senate, No. 1056) (Mr. Barrett having given notice that he will move to amend the bill by substituting a new draft, Senate, No. 2408) shall be placed in the Orders of the Day for a second reading on Tuesday, July 12, 2016.

All amendments shall be filed electronically in the office of the Clerk of the Senate by 12:00 noon, on Monday, July 11, 2016. All such amendments shall be second-reading amendments to Senate, No. 2408, but further amendments in the third degree to such amendments shall be in order. The Clerk shall further specify the procedure and format for filing all amendments, consistent with this order.

After the bill as amended is ordered to a third reading, it shall immediately be read a third time and the question shall then immediately be on passing it to be engrossed, and no amendments shall be in order at the third reading of the bill unless recommended by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading.

Under the rules, referred to the committee on Rules.

Subsequently, Mr. Montigny, for the said committee, reported, recommending that the order ought to be adopted.

The rules were suspended, on motion of the same Senator, and the order was considered forthwith and adopted.

The bill will be placed in the Orders of the Day for Tuesday, July 12, for a second reading with the amendment pending.

Orders of the Day.

The Orders of the Day were considered as follows:

The Senate Bill relative to the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (Senate, No. 746),-- was read a second time.

After remarks, pending the question on adoption of the amendment, previously recommended by the committee on Ways and Means, substituting a new draft with the same title (Senate, No. 2392), and pending the main question on ordering the bill to a third reading, Mr. Brownsberger moved that the proposed new draft be amended by striking out section 1.

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

Ms. Spilka moved that the proposed new draft be amended in section 2, by striking out, in line 474, the word "section", the second time it appears, and inserting in place thereof the following word:- "Article"; and by adding the following section:- "SECTION 4. This act shall take effect on July 1, 2017."

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

The Ways and Means amendment, as amended, was then adopted.

The bill (Senate, No. 2392, amended) was then ordered to a third reading and read a third time.

Orders of the Day.

The Orders of the Day were further considered as follows:

There being no objection, the following matters were taken out of order and considered, as follows:

The Senate Bill relative to parole eligibility (Senate, No. 2391),-- was read a second time.

Pending the question on ordering the bill to a third reading, on motion of Mr. Brownsberger, the bill was recommitted to the committee on the Judiciary.

The Senate Bill for language opportunity for our kids (Senate, No. 2288),-- was read a second time.

After remarks, and pending the question on adoption of the amendment, previously recommended by the committee on Ways and Means, substituting a new draft with the same title (Senate, No. 2395), and pending the main question on ordering the bill to a third reading, Mr. Ross moved that the proposed new draft be amended in section 5, by inserting at the end thereof the following:-

“The commissioner shall annually issue a report to the senate and house committees on ways and means and the joint committee on education regarding use of the state seal of biliteracy not later than July 1. The report shall include, but not be limited to information on the school districts utilizing the state seal of biliteracy, the number of students who have received the state seal of biliteracy from each school district, and recommendations for expanding use of the state seal of biliteracy to additional school districts.”

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Tarr moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:-

“SECTION . Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary the department of elementary and secondary education shall report on the teaching of civics in secondary or intermediate public school districts. The report shall include but not be limited to number of school districts requiring the completion of a civics section before graduation.

Said report shall be submitted to the clerks of the house and senate and the joint committee on education by December 31, 2016.”

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Tarr moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:-

“SECTION . Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary the department of elementary and secondary education shall report on the teaching of united states history in secondary or intermediate public school districts. The report shall include but not be limited to number of school districts requiring the completion of a united states history section before graduation.

Said report shall be submitted to the clerks of the house and senate and the joint committee on education by December 31, 2016.”

The amendment was adopted.

Ms. Chang-Diaz moved that the proposed new draft be amended by striking out section 11 and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

“SECTION 11. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, school districts whose on-site visits are scheduled for the 2016-2017 school year shall not be rescheduled due to this act.”

The amendment was adopted.

Ms. Chang-Diaz moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting after section 10 the following section:-

“SECTION 10A. Not later than July 1, 2017, the department of elementary and secondary education shall establish guidelines for school districts to assist in supporting English learners who do not meet anticipated benchmarks in attaining English proficiency.

The guidelines shall include: (i) ways for school districts to provide individualized goals and plans for English learners who are not meeting anticipated benchmarks in attaining English proficiency; (ii) best practices for ensuring that English learners meet individualized goals and plans to meet benchmarks in attaining English proficiency; and (iii) ways for school districts to share best practices among each other in assisting English learners in gaining English proficiency.

School districts shall provide a copy of such guidelines to the parents or guardians of each English learner, in the parent’s or guardian’s primary language, at the beginning of each school year, or upon enrollment of the student in an English Learner program if not concurrent with the beginning of the school year.”

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

Ms. Chang-Diaz moved that the proposed new draft be amended in section 8, in proposed section 7 of chapter 71A, by striking out the second paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

“If, based on factors, including, but not limited to, the assessment scores of English learners under section 6, a significant number of students in a school district fail to demonstrate progress in English language proficiency, as determined by the department, the department shall recommend ways to improve instructional programs for the school district’s English learner population. Nothing in this section shall prevent the department from conducting an evaluation of a language acquisition program at any time.”

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

The Ways and Means amendment, as amended, was then adopted.

The bill (Senate, No. 2395, amended) was then ordered to a third reading and read a third time.

The question on passing the bill to be engrossed was determined by a call of the yeas and nays at nine minutes past three o’clock P.M., on motion of Mr. DiDomenico, as follows, to wit (yeas 39 – nays 0) [Yeas and Nays No. 389]:

NAYS – 0.

The yeas and nays having been completed at thirteen minutes past three o'clock P.M., the bill was passed to be engrossed [For bill, printed as amended, see Senate, No. 2421]. Sent to the House for concurrence.

There being no objection, during consideration of the Orders of the Day, the following matter was considered as follows:

PAPER FROM THE HOUSE.

The House Bill relative to housing, operations, military service, and enrichment (House, No. 4285, amended)-- came from the House with the endorsement that the House had concurred in the Senate amendment, with a further amendment striking out all after the enacting clause (inserted by amendment by the Senate) and inserting in place thereof the text contained in House document numbered 4477.

The rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Rush, and the further House amendment was considered forthwith.

The same Senator moved that the Senate concur with the further House amendment with a still further amendment inserting before the enacting clause the following emergency preamble:-

“Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to further provide for the housing, operations, military service and enrichment of veterans, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.”

The further House amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Sent to the House for concurrence in the still further amendment.

Orders of the Day.

The Orders of the Day were further considered as follows:

There being no objection, the following matter was taken out of order and considered, as follows:
