Adjourn In Memory of Richard Donahue

The Senator from Middlesex, Ms. Donoghue, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in memory of Richard Donahue of Lowell.

Richard Donahue died at the age 88 on Tuesday, September 15, leaving behind his beloved wife Nancy and their 11 children, Richard Jr., Abigail Morris, Timothy, Stephen, Christopher, Tara, Alicia, Michael, Nancy, Daniel, and Philip.

Donahue is remembered nationally for his connection to the Kennedy family and for his tenure as president and C.O.O of Nike.

He worked on John Kennedy's campaigns for Senate and the White House before serving as special assistant to the president from 1961 to 1963. He also worked for Ted Kennedy's presidential campaign and served as vice chairman of the John F. Kennedy Library Foundation.

But in his hometown of Lowell, Donahue is celebrated for his philanthropy and his deep commitment to the community.

His contributions to the city are too numerous to list in full, but they include forming the Merrimack Repertory Theater, chairing the Lowell Plan, founding the Greater Lowell Community Foundation, and serving as chairman of University of Lowell's board of trustees.

The City of Lowell is a better place because of Richard Donahue, and it will miss his leadership and his generosity.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of Richard Donahue, at nineteen minutes past three o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
