JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

Wednesday, November 18, 2015.

Met at five minutes past eleven o'clock A.M.

The President, members, guests and staff then recited the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Distinguished Guests.

There being no objection, during consideration of the Orders of the Day, several guests were recognized as follows:

The President handed the gavel to Mr. DiDomenico for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. DiDomenico then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, the Everett High School Marching Band and their director Charley Poole. The band was accompanied by Gene O'Brien, the Everett High School Director of Music, Danielle Marine, the high school band's teacher and Eric Dauenhauer, the school's instrument teacher, Marie O'Brien, Patrick O'Brien and Carol O'Brien.

The Everett High School Marching Band then played a few songs and withdrew from the Chamber.

There being no objection, the President handed the gavel to Ms. Lovely for the purpose of an introduction. Ms. Lovely then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, John, Nancy and Andrew Frates. Ms. Lovely recognized the Frates family for the tremendous work they have done to raise awareness and help find a cure for ALS. Their son and brother, Pete Frates, has truly been an inspiration. Pete is a stand out athlete from Beverly who went on to be the captain of the Boston College baseball team in 2007. In 2012, Pete was diagnosed with ALS and has been on a mission to change the world and fight for a cure ever since.

Pete helped start a revolution to raise funds for ALS research through the now famous ice bucket challenge. The campaign went viral and brought international attention. There are now 17 million videos posted of the ice bucket challenge. In just over 30 days in 2014, the ice bucket challenge raised more than $100 million for the ALS association. That marked a 1,000% spike in donations to the organization. Since its inception, the ice bucket challenge has totaled more than $220 million and counting.

The Senate welcomed them with applause and they withdrew from the Chamber.

The yeas and nays having been completed at twenty-six minutes past three o'clock P.M., the bill was passed to be engrossed, in concurrence.

Remarks of Senator Thomas M. McGee.

I'd like to take this opportunity to speak in memory of 35 year Chatham Police Sergeant Joseph Fennell, constituent of Senator Dan Wolf, Cape and Islands; brother of a very close friend and Lynn State Rep Bob Fennell, who died unexpectedly on Friday, October 30th.

Joe began his career as a Patrolman, and worked with the youth as a DARE officer in the Chatham public schools where he taught generations of youth about resisting peer pressure, avoiding drugs, and making safe life choices. He later became a domestic affairs officer before his retirement in 2009 at the rank of Sergeant.

He is remembered by family, friends and colleagues as fair-minded, having a big heart, and being community oriented. He was a true public servant in every sense of the word, and always put the needs of others before his own.

Sergeant Fennell is survived by his wife Lilly, his children Katie, Billy and the late Terri, 4 stepchildren and 4 grandchildren. He was also the brother of Inez Accursio and Representative Bob Fennell.

I ask that you join me in rising in a moment of silence in memory of Joseph D. Fennell.

At the President, the members, guests and staff stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of Chatham Police Sergeant Joseph Fennell.

On motion of Mr. McGee, under the provisions of Senate Rule 6, the remarks were printed in the Journal of the Senate.

Remarks of Senators Daniel A Wolf and Viriato M. deMacedo.

It is with great sorrow that we recognize the passing of Attorney T. Richard (Rick) McIntosh. Rick worked as a civil legal aid attorney for 42 years at South Coastal Counties Legal Services, formerly known as Legal Services for Cape Cod & Islands.

Rick graduated from Columbia in 1970 and Boston University School of Law in 1973. He began his legal career as a VISTA attorney at Legal Services for Cape Cod & Islands, where he remained for his entire career. As a VISTA attorney, Rick was dedicated to fighting the War on Poverty and quickly became a well rounded advocate, acquiring expertise in housing, government benefits, elder, and juvenile matters.

Rick chose to use his legal skills to improve the lives of low income families. It is not an exaggeration to say that he helped thousands of Cape Cod families during the course of his legal career. He was a talented lawyer, a wonderful colleague and mentor to other attorneys and paralegals. Rick regularly has been characterized as smart, thoughtful, responsive, kind, and funny. Community groups actively sought his advice because of his sound judgment and thoughtful analysis of issues affecting low income communities.

During his career, he served on the Board of Directors of the Community Action Committee of Cape & Islands, on the Head Start Policy Council for Cape Cod Child Development, and on the Policy Advisory Board for Department of Transitional Assistance. Rick even served as acting director of LSCCI on two occasions: once near the end of the 1970's, and again in the mid-90s when he was co-director with his long time LSCCI colleague Tom Kosman. Rick would have said he much preferred representing clients.

In 1993, Rick received the Massachusetts Bar Association's Legal Services Award, after being nominated by the Barnstable County Bar Association. The award was given to Rick to acknowledge the significant contribution to civil legal aid and to indigent clients he already had made during his career. Rick was an expert in unemployment law and litigated many cases in that area before the Appeals Court and Supreme Judicial Court. Following the economic downturn in 2008, Rick worked tirelessly to address the demand for services presented by clients in need. He also was an expert in the field of government benefits, Veteran's benefits in particular. He served as faculty on many MCLE programs throughout his career.

Rick was a leader, not just at South Coastal Counties Legal Services, but in the Massachusetts legal aid community. His commitment to ensuring that low income families had access to quality legal representation was unwavering. For 42 years Rick provided access to justice for low income families living on Cape Cod. He was a wonderful colleague and a talented advocate. He will be missed terribly. Rick is survived by his wife of 45 years, Deborah McIntosh of Falmouth, and his two sons, Andrew and Daniel.

At the President, the members, guests and staff stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of T. Richard (Rick) McIntosh.

On motion of Mr. Pacheco, under the provisions of Senate Rule 6, the remarks were printed in the Journal of the Senate.
