Adjourn In Memory of Leonard P. Cooper

The Senator from Worcester, Ms. Chandler, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of Leonard P. Cooper.

Leonard P. Cooper, who passed away at the age of 70, was a life-long Worcester citizen, and was a graduate of Doherty Memorial High School. He received a degree in political science and government from the College of the Holy Cross.

He was extremely active in the local community, serving on the State Democratic Committee, the Worcester Community Labor Coalition, and the Worcester Jobs Fund. He worked tirelessly as the president of the local NAACP, and started the "Free Breakfast for Children" program.

His passion for helping others shone through in his forty years with the Massachusetts Rehabilitation Commission. He worked to increase the number of blacks and Hispanics promoted to middle and upper management, and increased the participation of minority disabled people within the vocational rehabilitation process.

He is remembered as a kind and generous person, who dedicated his life to helping others.

He is survived by his three sisters; Margo Sholtz, Cheryl Cooper, and Lois Nyako, all of Worcester. His two brothers, Normand Coates and Vernon Henry Cooper, as well as his sister Joanne Sholtz, predeceased him.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of Leonard P. Cooper, at twenty-five minutes past eleven o'clock A.M., on motion of Mr. Fattman, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Thursday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
