JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

Thursday, October 19, 2017.

Met at eleven minutes past eleven o'clock A.M.

The Senator from Plymouth and Barnstable, Mr. deMacedo, led the President, members, guests and staff in the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Pledge of allegiance.

Distinguished Guests.

There being no objection, the President handed the gavel to Ms. Chandler for the purpose of an introduction. Ms. Chandler then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, representatives from 12 local community mediation centers from the across the state. The group was visiting the State House in honor of National Conflict Resolution Day. These centers provide quality, accessible services for free or at low cost to all members of the community regardless of their ability to pay. Massachusetts is proud to have a state-sponsored system that supports community mediation as a cost-effective public service that increases access to justice and builds capacity for conflict resolution within the Commonwealth. The Senate welcomed them with applause and they withdrew from the Chamber.

The officers were visiting the Senate Chamber in recognition of the 242nd birthday of the United States Navy and also in recognition of the 220th birthday of the USS Constitution, the oldest commissioned warship afloat in the world. This vessel was nicknamed Old Ironsides during the War of 1812 and is known not only as the gem of the Navy, but also the city of Boston and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Commander Gerosa addressed the Senate, signed the guest book along with his accompanying naval officers and cut a birthday cake with a sword in recognition of the birthday celebrations. There being no objection, during consideration of the Governor's overrides, the following matter was considered.

Moment of Silence.

At the request of the Chair (Ms. Chandler), the members, guests and staff stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of Charles Halliday “Bud” Dolan.

Moment of silence.

Adjourn In Memory of Charles Halliday “Bud” Dolan

The Senator from Essex, Ms. O’Connor Ives, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of Charles Halliday “Bud” Dolan”.

Ms. O’Connor Ives in the Chair, Charles Halliday “Bud” Dolan passed away on August 14, 2017 and was predeceased by his beloved wife of 64 years, Mary (Doyle) Dolan, in 2014. Bud and Mary were proud to call Massachusetts home throughout their lifetimes.

As a young boy, Bud’s first job was selling newspapers on a street corner in Arlington during the Great Depression. He often shared his story about the special gift he received one Christmas. After buying a newspaper, a customer handed him a small box and wished him a “Merry Christmas.” Inside, Bud found a paper scroll tied in ribbon – a gift certificate for a new pair of shoes. Like many at the time, Bud’s shoes were worn out and patched with cardboard. Someone noticed and reached out to help. Decades later, the story still moved Bud to tears. He never forgot the man’s kindness and paid it forward throughout his life. He treated friends and customers like family and always offered a helping hand.

A highly decorated veteran of World War II, Bud served in the infantry in the Battle of the Bulge. He enlisted in the Army in the earliest days of America’s entry into the war, just a few days after graduating from Arlington High School. A Disabled Veteran, Bud was proud of his service but he did not consider himself a hero. He felt he was simply lucky. In 2009, Bud Dolan was honored at Newburyport City Hall for a photo taken of him, as part of the “Dear World” project, and his message: “Halt War.” He was quoted as saying “no war has ever been started by a serviceman or servicewoman - they simply fight the wars.” He had the utmost respect for all those who served on the front lines, and concern for all those whose lives were put in harm’s way.

Known simply as “Papa” to many, Bud treasured time with family and friends. He spent countless hours with his children and grandchildren at playgrounds, the beach, Canobie Lake, museums, libraries and zoos. His thirst for knowledge was endless and he inspired others to question and learn. He surrounded himself with books on politics, religion, history, Ireland and the New England region. Over time, he expanded his library, making it a point to learn about other topics of interest to family members and friends. Visitors always left with a gift – a special book he selected just for them.

Bud’s appreciation for life continued into his final years while living at the Elizabeth Calsey House in Amesbury. He cherished his friendships with other residents and the devoted staff. He lovingly referred to them as his “other family.”

May we reflect on Mr. Dolan’s contributions to his family, his community and his country.

Ms. Chandler in the Chair, Item 4200-0200. (Residential Services for Detained) was considered as follows:

Residential Services for Detained.

4200-0200 For pre-trial detention programs, including purchase-of-service and state-operated programs; provided, that the department shall expend not less than $500,000 for the detention diversion advocacy program to be coordinated by the Robert F. Kennedy Children's Action Corps, Inc. to prevent high-risk juveniles presenting before the court from penetrating further into the juvenile justice system..... $28,581,402.

Adjourn In Memory of Michele Nowak.

The Senator from Essex and Middlesex, Mr. Tarr, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of Michele Nowak of Middleton.

Mr. Tarr in the Chair, Michele Nowak of Middleton passed away on September 23, 2017 at the age of 54.

Michele Marie Nowak, beloved wife of Mark Nowak, served her community as a Reserve Police Officer with the Boxford and Middleton Police Departments at the time of her death.

Ms. Nowak was born in Salem and grew up in Beverly. She graduated Beverly High School in 1982, and went on to further her education at Salem State College. After graduating college, Ms. Nowak pursued her passion for law enforcement working in the Essex County Sherriff Department. Ms. Nowak took time off from her career raising her two children. After her children had grown, Ms. Nowak returned to work as a Reserve Police Officer with the Town of Boxford Police Department in 2005 and later became the town's DARE Officer in 2008. With her title of DARE Officer, she was able to teach children the negative effects of drugs and alcohol, something she found extremely important. She made such a profound impact on her community; she later was appointed President of the Massachusetts DARE Association. Starting in 2007, Ms. Nowak began working as a Reserve Officer in the town of Middleton where she lived. Her involvement in both departments allowed her to impact the Tri-Town community in a memorable way.

Ms. Nowak truly enjoyed her career and made a lasting impact on all around her. She took pride in her work and put significant effort into making her towns safe for every member. Her compassionate personality made her likeable and approachable. She was extremely respectful to her superiors, and was fond of every individual she was able to work with over the years. Ms. Nowak put others before herself, and strived to make both Boxford and Middleton better communities for all.

An active member of her community, Ms. Nowak was a member of the Recreation Commission in the town of Middleton for many years. She was a devoted communicant to St. Agnes Church in Middleton as well. She enjoyed making a difference and playing an important role in her community, and she deeply cherished the bonds she had made over time. To Ms. Nowak, family always came first. She will always be remembered as a loving wife, mother, sister, and aunt. She had a love for the outdoors, and spent as much time as she could fishing or snowmobiling with her wonderful family.

Ms. Nowak spent her life caring for and protecting all those around her, including members of her community she had never met before. She always had a welcoming smile on her face that could light up a room, and a heart so big it cared for everyone lucky enough to know her. Her unforgettable positive attitude, devotion to her career, and her zest for life will never be forgotten. She will be deeply missed, and forever remembered.

Ms. Nowak is survived by her husband of 25 years Mark Nowak of Middleton, her daughter Allyson Mary Nowak of Middleton, her son Christopher George Nowak of Middleton, her sister Marissa Mears of Salem, her brother Kevin O'Brien of Beverly, many loving family members, her fellow officers, and friends.

The President in the Chair, accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of Michele Nowak, at fourteen minutes before six o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
