JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

Tuesday, November 14, 2017.

Met at thirteen minutes past one o’clock P.M.

The Senator from Plymouth and Barnstable, Mr. deMacedo led the President, members, guests and staff in the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Report.

Report of the Metro West Regional Transit Authority (pursuant to Section 8(g) of Chapter 161B of the General Laws) submitting its financial statements and supplementary information for the year ended June 30, 2017 (received November 13, 2017),-- was placed on file.

Report of a Committee.

Ms. Spilka, for the committee on Ways and Means, reported, asking to be discharged from further consideration of the House Bill relative to Massachusetts participation in the Paris Climate Agreement's Green House Gas Emission Standards (House, No. 3994),— and recommending that the same be referred to the Senate committee on Global Warming and Climate Change.

Under Senate Rule 36, the report was considered forthwith and accepted.

PAPER FROM THE HOUSE.

Petitions were referred, in concurrence, as follows, to wit:

Petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 4028) of Carolyn C. Dykema and others (by vote of the town) that the town of Westborough be authorized to establish a capital improvements fund in said town; and Petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 4029) of James M. Kelcourse and Kathleen O’Connor Ives (by vote of the town) that the town of Salisbury be authorized to repeal the board of license commissioners in said town;

Severally to the committee on Municipalities and Regional Government.

Petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 4030) of Kenneth I. Gordon and Cindy F. Friedman (by vote of the town) that the town of Burlington be authorized to appoint special police officers in said town;

Were severally read and, under Senate Rule 27, referred to the committee Communications.

The Clerk read the following communications:

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
MASSACHUSETTS SENATE

November 14, 2017

William F. Welch, Clerk of the Senate
State House
Room 335
Boston, MA 02133

Dear Mr. Clerk:

This week I am in Bonn, Germany, attending COP23, the annual U.N. Climate Change Conference, as a member of a delegation organized by the American Sustainable Business Council. The ASBC has official Observer status here at the Conference. Given recent political developments at the national level in several countries, the U.S. included, there is intense interest this year on the part of COP23 organizers in involving “subnational” decision-makers — representatives of states, cities, and provinces. As Senate Chair of Massachusetts’ Joint Committee on Telecommunications, Utilities and Energy, and as lead sponsor of An Act Combating Climate Change, legislation to create a revenue-neutral carbon fee to drive down greenhouse gas emissions within Massachusetts, I am pleased to be meeting in Bonn with similarly interested delegates and observers from around the world.

At the same time, however, I regret missing Senate sessions this week, including a number of anticipated roll calls. I will send a letter next week stating how I would have voted on any important matters, should they arise.

I respectfully request that a copy of this letter be printed in the Senate Journal for today’s formal session.

Appreciatively,
SEN. MIKE BARRETT
Third Middlesex.

On motion of Mr. Rodrigues, the above communication was ordered printed in the Journal of the Senate.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
MASSACHUSETTS SENATE

November 14, 2017

The Honorable William F. Welch
Clerk of the Massachusetts Senate
State House, Room 335
Boston, MA 02133

Dear Mr. Clerk:
I was absent from the Chamber for part of the formal session on Wednesday, November 8, 2017.

Had I been present I would have voted in the negative on the following roll calls:
- Question on the adoption of amendment #74 to S. 2202, Roll Call 266
- Question on the adoption of amendment #82 to S. 2202, Roll Call 267
- Question on the adoption of amendment #82 again to S. 2202, Roll Call 268 and had I been present I would have voted in the affirmative on the following roll calls:

- Question on passing the bill to be engrossed on S. 2196, Roll Call 269

I ask that these votes be recorded and I respectfully request that a copy of this correspondence be printed in the journal during the next session. Thank you for your assistance on this matter.

Sincerely,
SENATOR PATRICIA D. JEHLEN
Second Middlesex

On motion of Ms. Lovely, the above communication was ordered printed in the Journal of the Senate.

Report of a Committee.

Mr. Montigny, for the committee on Rules, reported that the following matter be placed in the Orders of the Day for the next session:

The House Bill authorizing the town of Tisbury to pay a certain unpaid bill (printed in House, No. 3710).

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Keenan, and the bill was read a second time, ordered to a third reading, read a third time and passed to be engrossed, in concurrence.

Orders of the Day.

The Orders of the Day were considered as follows:
Bills
- Establishing a municipal light commission in the city known as the town of Greenfield (House, No. 2705, amended); and
- Relative to the post employment benefits trust fund of the town of Wellesley (House, No. 4006);

Were severally read a second time and ordered to a third reading.

There being no objection during consideration of the Orders of the Day, the following matters were considered as follows:

Moment of Silence.

At the request of the President, the members, guests and staff stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of Donald Gallante.

Adjourn In Memory of Donald A. “Hank” Galante.

The Senator from Middlesex, Ms. Friedman, and the Senator from Plymouth and Bristol Mr. Brady, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in memory Donald A. “Hank” Galante of Woburn. Hank passed away on January 10th at 87 years of age.

Serving in the US Air Force as an Army Sgt. In 1946, Donald served his country proudly as an active unit in Osaka, Japan from 1946 to 1949 and was awarded The Army of Occupation Medal of Japan and the World War II Victory Medal. Following his service Donald went on to start Galante Brothers Construction in 1954 which went on to be a successful family run business in Woburn. In 1998 Donald went on to be elected to the Woburn City Council proudly serving as Alderman for consecutive terms. During retirement Donald’s life experience and conversational skills made him a favorite while he worked for the Woburn Cab Company where he was often requested for daily pickups.

Donald kept himself busy throughout life, a talented cook and a smooth dancer, Donald was a Burlington Lions Club member for a number of years and a longtime member of the St. Anthony’s Parish. A very genuine, loving and caring person, Donald's life was full. Having the great love of family and friends, he will long be remembered.

He was the devoted father of Susan M. Branley and her husband Kenneth of Wilmington, Donald A. Galante, Jr and wife Michele of Easton, Barbara L Hart and her husband Phillip of Burlington, MaryBeth Laing and her husband, Norman
A message from His Excellency the Governor, returning, with his disapproval of certain items and sections of certain items, and reductions in certain items contained in the engrossed Bill making appropriations for the fiscal year 2018 for the maintenance of the departments, boards commissions, institutions and certain activities of the Commonwealth, for interest, sinking fund and serial bond requirements and for certain permanent improvements (see House, No. 3800), which on Friday, July 7, 2017, had been laid before the Governor for his approbation,— came from the House, in part, several items having been passed by the House notwithstanding the reduction or disapproval of the Governor.

The message (House, No. 3828) was read; and the Senate proceeded to reconsider several items, which had been reduced or disapproved in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution.

Item 7070-0065 (Scholarship Reserve) was considered as follows:

7070-0065 For a scholarship program to provide financial assistance to Massachusetts students enrolled in and pursuing a program of higher education in any approved public or independent college, university, school of nursing or any other approved institution furnishing a program of higher education; provided, that funds from this item may be expended on the administration of the scholarship program; provided further, that the commissioner of higher education, in coordination with the Massachusetts state scholarship office, shall follow adopted guidelines governing the eligibility for and the awarding of financial assistance; provided further, that funds from this item shall be made available for early educator scholarships in an amount not less than the amount made available in fiscal year 2017; and provided further, that not less than $254,000 shall be made available to provide financial assistance for residents of the commonwealth enrolled at public higher education institutions to participate in the Massachusetts initiative with The Washington Center for Internships and Academic Seminars........

The Governor reduced this item by $254,000 and struck the following wording "; and provided further, that not less than $254,000 shall be made available to provide financial assistance for residents of the commonwealth enrolled at public higher education institutions to participate in the Massachusetts initiative with The Washington Center for Internships and Academic Seminars".

After remarks, the question on passing item 7070-0065, contained in section 2, in concurrence, the reduction and objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding, was determined by a call of the yeas and nays, as required by Chapter I, Section I, Article II, of the Constitution, at nineteen minutes before two o’clock P.M., as follows, to wit (yeas 35 - nays 2) [Yeas and Nays No. 282]:

Orders of the Day.

The Orders of the Day were considered as follows:

The engrossed Bill authorizing the Department of Elder Affairs to establish a home care worker registry (House, No. 3821, amended),-- was considered, the main question being on concurring in the House amendment.

Pending the question on concurring in the House amendment, Mr. Tarr moved that the House amendment be amended by striking the text and inserting in place thereof the following:

“SECTION 4A. Chapter 19A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 4C the following section:

Section 4D. (a) As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

‘Home care worker’, a person employed by a home care agency to provide home health aide, homemaker, personal care, and supportive home care aide services.

‘Home care agency’ an entity, however organized, whether conducted for profit or not for profit, which is advertised, announced, established or maintained for the purpose of providing home health aide, homemaker, personal care homemaker, companion and chore services to clients in community-based settings

(b) The department shall, subject to appropriation, establish and maintain a registry of individuals who have successfully completed an education or training program which meets the home health aide training requirements set forth by the federal Medicare Conditions of Participation for Home Health Agencies at 42 CFR Part 484.36 or the Homemaker/Personal Care standards issued by the MA Executive office of Elder Affairs. The registry shall be sufficiently and promptly accessible to meet the needs of home care agencies, home care workers, and the public. A home care agency shall only hire or employ, on a paid, unpaid, temporary or permanent basis, a home care worker who is listed in the registry as having demonstrated competency as defined by the department.

(c) The registry shall include: (i) an individual’s full name; (ii) assigned unique identification number; (iii) home care aide training level; (iii) name of training program; (iv) language abilities; (v) in service training information; (vi) home care employment history; and (vii) any other information the department deems necessary to identify the individual.

(d) All home care agencies shall contact the registry prior to hiring an individual who will provide home health, homemaker, personal care homemaker, and supportive home care aide services to patients or have access to patients or their property to access any information in the registry relating to any home care worker

(e) The department shall specify which information for the registry shall be submitted and updated by the training program or home care agency

(f) The registry shall be updated at least monthly. Any entity required or choosing to provide information to the registry shall promptly submit updated information whenever such information changes.

(g) The department shall establish appropriate security mechanisms to safeguard any personality identifiable information in the registry and maintain a record of accessing or obtaining information from the registry.

(h) The department shall provide reasonable and appropriate timetables, notices and phase-in mechanisms for applying various provisions of this section to training programs, home care agencies, and home care workers. Persons employed as home care workers on the effective date of this section shall be registered as soon as practicable, but not later than twelve months after such effective date.

(i) The department may make any such additional rules and regulations as are reasonably necessary to implement the provisions of this section

(j) This act shall take effect one year after the date of passage.

After remarks, the amendment was rejected.

Mr. Tarr doubted the vote and asked for a standing vote; and it was rejected by a vote of 5 to 12.

Mr. Tarr moved that the House amendment be amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new section:-

“SECTION. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary the executive office of elder affairs in conjunction with the executive office of health and human services and the executive office of public safety and security shall develop a plan for the registration of home care workers who have registered through a web-based service or platform.

Said plan and any recommendations shall be filed with the joint committee on elder affairs, and the clerks of the house and senate by December 31, 2018.”

After remarks, the amendment was rejected.

Mr. Tarr doubted the vote and asked for a standing vote; and it was rejected by a vote of 6 to 17.

The House amendment was again considered and it was adopted, in concurrence.
PAPERS FROM THE HOUSE

Message from the Governor — Reductions and Disapprovals

General Appropriations Bill.

A message from His Excellency the Governor, returning, with his disapproval of certain items and sections and parts of certain items, and reductions in certain items contained in the engrossed Bill making appropriations for the fiscal year 2018 for the maintenance of the departments, boards commissions, institutions and certain activities of the Commonwealth, for interest, sinking fund and serial bond requirements and for certain permanent improvements (see House, No. 3800), which on Friday, July 7, 2017, had been laid before the Governor for his approbation,— came from the House, in part, several items having been passed by the House notwithstanding the reduction or disapproval of the Governor.

The message (House, No. 3828) was read; and the Senate proceeded to reconsider several items, which had been reduced or disapproved in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution.

Section 40 (Driver School License I) was considered as follows:

“SECTION 40. Section 32G of said chapter 90 is hereby amended by inserting after the word “person,”, in line 1, as so appearing, the following words:-

no authority established under chapter 161B.”

The Governor disapproved this section.

Section 128 (Child Welfare Reporting Task Force) was considered as follows:

“SECTION 128. There shall be a task force on child welfare data reporting. The task force shall develop basic data measures, progress measures and key outcome measures to inform the legislature and the public about the status and demographics of the caseload of the department of children and families, the department’s progress in achieving child welfare goals, including safety, permanency and well-being, the status of proceedings in the juvenile court department that involve children in the department’s caseload and the status of children who are or have been involved in both the child welfare and juvenile justice systems.

The task force shall develop criteria for measuring outcomes for children and families in the key child welfare domains of safety, permanency and well-being for children including, but not limited to, the outcomes of: (i) protecting children from abuse and neglect; (ii) safely maintaining children in their own homes whenever possible and appropriate; (iii) achieving stability and permanency for children in their living situations; (iv) preserving the continuity of family relationships; (v) enhancing the capacity of families to provide for the needs of children; (vi) ensuring that children receive appropriate services to meet their educational needs; (vii) ensuring that children receive the services necessary to meet their physical needs.”

and mental health needs; (viii) achieving permanency and opportunity for young adults; (ix) complying with timeframes and deadlines for court hearings; and (x) minimizing the incidence of juvenile justice system involvement for children involved with the department of children and families.

The task force shall also make recommendations to: (i) ensure that department of children and families’ annual, biannual and quarterly reports include appropriate data measures that are clearly defined, placed in the context of historical or other comparative data when necessary to convey the meaning of the reported data and include the department’s current understanding as to why certain trends may be appearing in the data; (ii) eliminate reports that are no longer necessary; and (iii) ensure that reports are submitted on time and posted on the department’s website. The task force shall also make recommendations about periodic reports from the courts on cases involving children involved with the department of children and families.

Not later than 45 days after the end of each quarter, the department of children and families shall publish on its website caseload profile reports that provide statewide, regional and area office summaries that include data covering the number of maltreatment reports received during the year; screen in and support decisions; number of children in placement; adoptions and guardianships legalized; consumer demographics including race and primary language; information relating to children that are in placement, including most recent intake, placement type, race, age group, continuous time in placement, gender, and service plan goal; and information relating to children that are not in placement, including most recent intake and age group.

The task force shall be comprised of the following persons or their designees: the child advocate who shall serve as co-chair; the commissioner of children and families who shall serve as co-chair; the senate and house chairs of the joint committee on children, families and persons with disabilities; the chief justice of the juvenile court department; the executive director of the Massachusetts Law Reform Institute, Inc.; the chief counsel of the committee for public counsel services; the executive director of Children’s League of Massachusetts, Inc.; 1 person with expertise in child welfare data and outcome measurement to be chosen by the child advocate; and 1 person with expertise in the department of children and families’ information technology, data collection and reporting systems to be chosen by the commissioner of children and families. The task force shall consult with other individuals who have relevant expertise as needed.

The task force shall meet not less than quarterly and, in the first 6 months of its first year, the full task force or its working groups shall meet at least monthly. Annually, on or before January 31, the task force shall file its recommendations, together with drafts of legislation necessary to implement those recommendations, with the clerks of the senate and house of representatives and the clerks shall forward the report to the senate and house chairs of the joint committee on children, families and persons with disabilities.”

Engrossed Bill Returned with Recommendation of Amendment.

A message from His Excellency the Governor, returning with recommendation of amendment the engrossed Bill relative to a study of the trauma registry in the Department of Public Health (see House, No. 3827) [being the text contained in Section 138 of the General Appropriations Bill] (see House, No. 3800) [for message, see attachment K of House, No. 3828],-- came from the House with the endorsement that the House had rejected the amendment recommended by the Governor, (as approved by the House Committee on Bills in the Third Reading).
The message was read; and, under the provisions of Article LVI of the Amendments to the Constitution, the bill was before the Senate subject to amendment and re-enactment.

The rules were suspended, on motion of Ms. Spilka, and, after remarks, the Governor's amendment was considered forthwith and rejected, in concurrence.

Sent to the House for re-enactment.

Engrossed Bill.

An engrossed Bill relative to advancing contraceptive coverage and economic security in our state (see House, No. 4009, amended) (which originated in the House), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage, after remarks, was passed to be enacted, by a vote of 27-0, and signed by the Acting President (Ms. Chandler) (having been appointed by the President, under authority conferred by Senate Rule 4, to perform the duties of the Chair) and laid before the Governor for his approbation.

Ms. Chandler in the Chair, the Senate Bill relative to handicapped parking (Senate, No. 2178),-- came from the House passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, with an amendment striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the text contained in House document numbered 3973, amended.

The rules were suspended, on motion of Ms. Donoghue, and the House amendment was considered forthwith.

The same Senator presented moved that the Senate concur with the House amendment with a further amendment striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the text contained in Senate document numbered 2214.

The House amendment, as amended was adopted.

Sent to the House for concurrence in the further amendment.

At the request of the President, the members, guests and staff stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of the Honorable Captain Thomas J. Hudner.

Order Adopted.

The President in the Chair, on motion of Mr. Cyr,--

Ordered. That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again tomorrow at one o’clock P.M., in a full formal session without a calendar.

Adjourn In Memory of The Honorable Captain Thomas J. Hudner

The Senator from Norfolk and Suffolk, Mr. Rush, Senator from Bristol and Plymouth, Mr. Rodrigues, the Senator from Essex and Middlesex, Mr. Tarr, the Senator from Norfolk, Bristol and Plymouth, Mr. Timilty and the Senator from Plymouth and Norfolk, Mr. O’Connor moved that when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory of the Honorable Captain Thomas J. Hudner.

Messrs. Rush and Rodrigues in the Chair, the Honorable Captain Thomas J. Hudner of Concord passed away on Monday, November 13th at the age of 93.
Leaving behind his beloved wife of 49 years, Georgea, their 5 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

A Massachusetts native, born in Fall River, Thomas Hudner attended Phillips Academy and the United States Naval Academy. Where he took up flying and joined Fighter Squadron 32, flying the F4U Corsair at the outbreak of the Korean War. Arriving near Korea in October 1950, he flew support missions from the aircraft carrier USS Leyte.

Captain Hudner made a lifetime of putting the needs of others above his own; as an officer of the United States Navy and a naval aviator. He rose to the rank of captain, and received the Medal of Honor for his actions in trying to save the life of his wingman, Ensign Jesse L. Brown, during the Battle of Chosin Reservoir in the Korean War.

On 4 December 1950, Captain Thomas Hudner and Ensign Jesse Brown were among a group of pilots on patrol near the Chosin Reservoir when Brown's Corsair was struck by ground fire from Chinese troops and crashed. In an attempt to save Brown from his burning aircraft, Captain Hudner crash-landed his own aircraft on a snowy mountain, in freezing temperatures to help Brown. In spite of these efforts, Brown did not survive. As a result of his efforts Captain Hudner suffered many injuries, being forced to evacuate. In recognition of his extraordinary efforts Captain Hudner was presented with the Navy’s first Medal of Honor recipient since World War II.

Prior to his retirement in 1973, Captain Thomas Hudner held positions aboard several U.S. Navy ships with a number of aviation units, including a brief stint as Executive Officer of USS Kitty Hawk during a tour in the Vietnam War.

In subsequent years, he continued to support fellow veterans through his work with various organizations throughout the country. He represented the Commonwealth as Secretary of the Massachusetts Department of Veterans Services from 1991-1999.

His dedication and devotion to veterans and his love for the United State went unnoticed through receiving a number of honors throughout his adult life; he was honored by the Gathering of Eagles Program of the Air Force at Maxwell Air Force Base, 1989. In 2001, Thomas Hudner presented Daisy Brown Thorne with several of Jesse Brown's posthumous medals at Mississippi State University. In May 2012, the Secretary of the Navy announced that an Arleigh Burke-class guided missile destroyer would be named USS Thomas Hudner.

Captain Thomas Hudner will be truly missed by the many lives he has touched, including the United States Navy, his family and friends.

The President in the Chair, accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory Captain Thomas J. Hudner, at nine minutes before five o’clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Feeney, the Senate adjourned to meet again tomorrow at one o’clock P.M.
