Report of a Committee.

Mr. Montigny, for the committee on Rules, reported that the following matter be placed in the Orders of the Day for the next session:

The Senate Bill to establish February 20 as Frederick Douglass Day (Senate, No. 1740).

Frederick Douglass Day.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. deMacedo, and the bill was read a second time.

Pending the question on ordering the bill to a third reading, Mr. Montigny requested that the bill be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place the following text:-

“SECTION 1. Chapter 6 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 15FFFFFF the following section:-

Section 15GGGGGG. The governor shall annually issue a proclamation setting apart February 14 as Frederick Douglass Day, in recognition of the outstanding contributions of Frederick Douglass to the abolitionist movement and his lifelong fight for equality in the commonwealth and throughout the United States, and recommend that the day be observed in an appropriate manner by the people.”;

By inserting before the enacting clause the following emergency preamble:-

“Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is forthwith to recognize the outstanding contributions of Frederick Douglass, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.”; and

By striking out the title and inserting in place thereof the following title:-

“An Act designating February 14 as Frederick Douglass Day.”.

The amendment was adopted

The bill (Senate, No. 1720, amended) was then ordered to a third reading, read a third time and passed to be engrossed.

Sent to the House for concurrence.
