Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Welch,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M., and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Time of meeting.

Adjournment in Memory of Sergeant Sean M. Gannon.

The Senator from Cape and Islands, Mr. Cyr, and the Senator from Plymouth and Barnstable, Mr. deMacedo, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of Yarmouth Police Sergeant Sean M. Gannon of Dennis.

Messrs. Cyr and deMacedo in the Chair, Sergeant Gannon was killed in the line of duty on April 12, 2018. He was 32 years old.

Sergeant Gannon was born in 1985 in New Bedford and graduated from Bishop Stang High School in 2003. He went on to graduate with honors from Westfield State University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice, a Master's with honors from Massachusetts Maritime Academy with a degree in Emergency Management in 2011, and the MBTA Municipal Police Academy. Gannon's internships included time with the Nantucket Police and the Westfield Police, and he earned certifications as an EMT and Life Saving Instructor.

Sergeant Gannon started his career at Stonehill College in 2007 as a member of the Campus Police, where he was mentored by Stonehill Police Chief and Former Yarmouth Police Chief Peter Carnes.

"I've been a police officer for 45 years, and I think Sean is one of the finest police officers I've met," said Chief Carnes.

Gannon then joined the Yarmouth Police Department in 2010 where he was part of the Emergency Management Unit, a part-time member of the Proactive Anti-Crime Team, and he was the first K-9 narcotics officer for the Yarmouth Police Department. After his first patrol dog "Thor" was retired, Gannon then acquired the patrol dog 'Nero' who was also injured on April 12th, but is recovering well after lifesaving care at Cape Cod Veterinary Specialists in Buzzards Bay.

Sergeant Gannon is survived by his wife Dara Gannon, his parents, Denise and Patrick, his siblings, Timothy and his fiancé Mary, Martha and her husband Derrick, his in-laws Kathy and Dean Bryan, and their son Ross, along with many relatives and friends.

Sergeant Gannon leaves behind a loving family, countless friends, and many fellow police officers in Yarmouth, across Cape Cod, our Commonwealth, and country who are deeply sorrowed by his tragic death. Sergeant Gannon had wanted to be a cop since he was a little boy drawing superheroes and playing Peter Pan. He became a dedicated police officer known for his restraint, his quiet but firm sense of right and wrong, and the gentle way he spoke to victims. He enjoyed working with his hands, donating his time to the Big Brother/Big Sister program of Cape Cod, and being outside. He shared a passion for international travel, mountain climbing, camping, and dogs with his wife Dara; they had planned to soon start a family. He loved spending time with his family, friends, and their dogs — eventually keeping three in the house he and his wife bought together in Dennis. Sergeant Gannon was a good person of high moral integrity, decency, and commitment to service to others. May we all reflect on and appreciate Sergeant Gannon's life and service, and the service that all our police officers and first responders perform selflessly every day to keep us safe.

The President in the Chair, accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Sergeant Sean M. Gannon, at seven minutes past six o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Humason, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
