JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

Wednesday, July 18, 2018.

Met at eleven minutes past eleven o'clock A.M. (Mr. Rodrigues in the Chair).

The Chair (Mr. Rodrigues), members, guests and staff then recited the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Pledge of allegiance.

Distinguished Guests.

There being no objection, the Chair (Mr. Pacheco) introduced in the rear of the Chamber, the Taunton High School Softball Team. The team was recognized for capturing their fifth state title in the program's history on June 23rd, after beating previously unbeaten Central champion Wachusett, 13-2. This win marked Taunton's first state title in 11 years. The Senate applauded their accomplishments, were presented with a Senate Citation and they withdrew from the Chamber. They were accompanied by Coach Dave Lewry who was recognized as the Boston Globe's Division I Coach of the Year.

Softball Team.

There being no objection, the President handed the gavel to Ms. L'Italien for the purpose of an introduction. Ms. L'Italien then introduced, on the Rostrum, Miss Massachusetts 2018 Gabriela Taveras. Gabriela is the first woman of color to win this title, having taken the top honor out of 27 contestants at the 79th annual scholarship pageant last month. She is a graduate of Central Catholic High School in Lawrence and Emmanuel College and was recently named an "All Star Recruiter" at her job as an account recruiter at the large staffing firm Insight Global. The Senate applauded her accomplishments; she addressed the Senate from the Rostrum, signed the guest book and withdrew from the Chamber. The Senate also wished her well as she represents Massachusetts at the Miss America Pageant in September.

Gabriela Taveras,
Miss Massachusetts
2018.

There being no objection, the President handed the gavel to Mr. Pacheco for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. Pacheco then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, Dr. Wing-kai To, Dr. Wendy Haynes and Dr. Michael Kryzanek from Bridgewater State University. They were accompanied by 25 Mandela Fellows from 18 Sub-Saharan African countries. The Senate welcomed them with applause and they withdrew from the Chamber. They were also guests of Senator Lewis.

Dr. Wing-kai To
Dr. Wendy Haynes
and Dr. Michael Kryzanek.

There being no objection, the President handed the gavel to Ms. Lovely for the purpose of an introduction. Ms. Lovely then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, artists from Montserrat College of Art in Beverly. There is currently an art exhibit in Room 428 showcasing the work of artists from the College. Among the group were the new President, Kurt T. Steinberg, who just joined the College after 12 years at the Massachusetts College of Art and Design where he served as executive vice president and one year as acting president, and Jo Broderick, Dean of College Relations & Special Assistant to the President. The Senate welcomed them with applause and they withdrew from the Chamber.

PAPERS FROM THE HOUSE

Engrossed Bills.

The following engrossed bills (both of which originated in the House), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage, were severally passed to be enacted and were signed by the President and laid before the Governor for his approbation, to wit:

Relative to the municipal police training fund (see House, No. 4516); and Making appropriations for the fiscal year 2019 for the maintenance of the departments, boards, commissions, institutions and certain activities of the Commonwealth, for interest, sinking fund and serial bond requirements and for certain permanent improvements (see House, No. 4800).

Bills laid before the Governor.

The House Bill protecting youth from the health risks of tobacco and nicotine addiction (House, No. 4486, amended),-- came from the House with the endorsement that the House had concurred in the Senate amendment (striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the text of Senate document numbered Nicotine addiction.

2585) with a further amendment striking out all after the enacting clause (inserted by amendment by the Senate) and inserting in place thereof the text contained in House document numbered 4784.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Lewis, and the House amendment was considered forthwith.

After remarks, the question on adoption of the further House amendment was determined by a call of the yeas and nays, at twenty-one minutes past seven o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Lewis, as follows, to wit (yeas 32 – nays 3) [Yeas and Nays No. 453]:

draft with the same title (Senate, No. 2606), and pending the main question on ordering the bill to a third reading, Mr. Moore moved that the proposed new draft be amended in section 2 by striking, in line 32, the words "a hearing before the commission" and inserting in place thereof the following words:- "an opportunity to respond in writing"; and

In said section 2, by striking, in lines 48 to 50, inclusive, the words "(ii) revoke or downgrade a license maintained by the employer; (iii) require forfeiture of a state contract; or (iv) impose a combination of such fine, license revocation or downgrade or state contract forfeiture" and inserting in place thereof the following words:- "(ii) recommend the revocation or downgrade of a license maintained by the employer; (iii) recommend the forfeiture of a state contract; or (iv) impose a combination of such fine, recommendation of license revocation or downgrade or recommendation of state contract forfeiture".

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Tarr moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting after section __ the following:-

"SECTION: Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary any private caretaker contracted by the commonwealth shall have to meet the standards as established under 115 CMR."

The amendment was rejected.

The Ways and Means amendment, as amended, was then adopted.

The bill (Senate, No. 2606, amended) was then ordered to a third reading and, after remarks, was read a third time.

After further remarks, the question on passing the bill to be engrossed was determined by a call of the yeas and nays, at twenty minutes before eight o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Moore, as follows, to wit (yeas 36 – nays 0) [Yeas and Nays No. 454]:

The Senate Bill establishing the Massachusetts Code of Military Justice (printed in Senate, No. 2236),-- was read a second time.

National Guard,-- code of military justice.

Pending the question on adoption of the amendment, previously recommended by the committee on Ways and Means, substituting a new draft with the same title (Senate, No. 2611), and pending the main question on ordering the bill to a third reading, Mr. Lesser moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting after section 57 the following section:-

“SECTION 57A. Said chapter 33 is hereby further amended by striking out section 88B and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 88B. The commonwealth shall reimburse a servicemember's monthly premium in the Serviceman's Group Life Insurance Program administered by the Veterans Administration or an equivalent group life insurance program of the servicemember's choosing; provided, however, that such reimbursement shall not exceed 50 per cent of the monthly premium cost of Serviceman's Group Life Insurance. The reimbursement may be paid directly to the service member or paid as a premium payment directly to an equivalent group life insurance program of the service member's choosing for the purchase of supplemental life insurance. The Massachusetts National Guard State Sponsored Life Insurance Program is recognized as an equivalent group life insurance program.”

The amendment was adopted.

Ms. Spilka moved that the proposed new draft be amended in section 43, by striking out, in line 127, the words "in active" and inserting in place thereof the following word:- "inactive".

The amendment was adopted.

The Ways and Means amendment, as amended, was then adopted.

The bill (Senate, No. 2611, amended) was then ordered to a third reading. The rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Moore, and, the bill was read a third time and, after remarks, passed to be engrossed.

Sent to the House for concurrence.

Report of a Committee

Mr. Montigny, for the committee on Rules, reported that the following matter be placed in the Orders of the Day for the next session:

The Senate Bill making technical changes to the laws regulating a certain notarial act (Senate, No. 2312) (the committee on Rules having recommended that the bill be amended by substituting a new draft with the same title, Senate, No. 2615).

Notarial act.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Ms. Creem, and the bill was read a second time and was amended, as recommended by the committee on Rules.

The bill (Senate, No. 2615) was then ordered to a third reading, read a third time and passed to be engrossed.

Sent to the House for concurrence.

On motion of Mr. Collins,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again tomorrow at eleven o'clock A.M., in a full formal session with a calendar.

Time of meeting.

Moment of Silence.

At the request of the President, the members, guests and staff stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of Donald Ashe.

Moment of silence.

Adjourn In Memory of Donald Ashe

The Senator from First Hampden and Hampshire, Mr. Lesser, the Senator from Second Hampden and Hampshire, Mr. Humason, the Senator from Berkshire, Hampshire, Franklin and Hampden, Mr. Hinds, the Senator from Hampden, Mr. Welch and the Senator from Worcester, Hampden, Hampshire and Middlesex, Ms. Gobi, moved that when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory of Donald Ashe who passed away on July 10, 2018 at the age of 83.

Mr. Lesser in the Chair, Mr. Ashe served as Hampden County Registrar of Deeds for over 35 years, first elected in 1982.

Mr. Ashe was born and raised in the Hungry Hill section of Springfield. He was a proud graduate of Springfield's Cathedral High School, Don, as he was known to his friends and family, was a pioneer in his field, leading the Hampden County Registry of Deeds to become the number one ranked registry in the Commonwealth.

Under his tenure, Hampden County became the first registry in New England to electronically record a document, and he brought the registry into the 21st century by using cutting-edge technologies.

Mr. Ashe was a licensed real estate broker, a Notary Public, Justice of the Peace, Commissioner to Qualify, and an Assistant Recorder for the Massachusetts Land Court.

Mr. Ashe served as Chairman of the Board of Directors for the Clinton Nursery School and Kindergarten, as president of the Hampden County Register of Deeds Association, and the former Hampden County Democratic Committee.

Mr. Ashe was proud of his Irish heritage, and held dual Irish citizenship. He was a member of the Holyoke Parade Committee, the Cape Cod Sons of Erin, a life member of the John Boyle O'Reilly Club, and was a Past Grand Marshal of the Springfield Parade Committee.

His annual party at Springfield's John Boyle O'Reilly club kicked off the St. Patrick's season.

Mr. Ashe also held a life membership in the Springfield Lodge of Elks #61.

In addition, he was an instructor for the Hampden County Deputy Sheriff's Training Program.

Before becoming Register of Deeds, Mr. Ashe was Director of Relocation Services for the Springfield Redevelopment Authority and was a former Disaster Shelter Manager for the City of Springfield.

Mr. Ashe had participated in the Jewish Community Center's Ms. Senior Massachusetts Pageant as Master of Ceremonies.

Mr. Ashe enjoyed visits to Cape Cod with his family, piloting his Boston

Whaler, attending live theater and concerts, dining out at favorite restaurants, observing and interpreting human nature, keeping a secret at all cost, and sharing his iconic sense of humor with all he met.

He considered the staff at the Hampden County Registry his second family and held all in his employ in the highest regard.

Mr. Ashe will be profoundly missed by his wife, Margaret and his five sons Donald Jr, Steve, Mark, Greg and Brian who represents the 2nd Hampden District in the Massachusetts House of Representatives.

A devoted grandfather, Don also leaves his grandchildren Meaghan, Brianna, Nick, Tiernan, and Kyra.

Mr. Ashe was an elder statesman in Hampden County and a dutiful public servant.

On behalf of the People of Hampden County we offer our sincere thanks for his service and humbly honor his legacy by adjourning this body in his honor.

The President in the Chair, accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of Donald Ashe, at five minutes before eight o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Lesser, the Senate adjourned to meet again tomorrow at eleven o'clock A.M.
