Adjourn In Memory of John P. Dami.

The Senator from Cape and Islands, Mr. Cyr, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in memory of John P. Dami of Mashpee. Mr. Dami passed away at Cape Cod Hospital on July 1, 2017. He was 74 years old.

Mr. Dami devoted his life to public service. He served for forty years in the Mashpee Police Department and in the 82nd Airborne Division of the U.S. Army. His passing has left many mourning in the Mashpee community, especially members of the police department.

Mr. Dami was a loving husband, father, brother, and son to his family. He was a dedicated husband of 25 years to Deborah F. Dami, and in addition to his wife, he is survived by his son Brian Costa and his wife, Jessica Costa; two brothers, Richard Dami of Wellesley and Paul Borsari of Brewster; three sisters, Cecelia Healy of Bridgewater, Laura Maffeo of Weymouth and Margaret Mulhern of Westwood; three grandchildren; and extended family.

Mr. Dami leaves behind an extraordinary legacy – of service to his community and country. He was active in the Mashpee community and maintained a humble and kind demeanor to all around him. As he once told Mashpee Police Officer Joseph Catenese, “Be the same guy all the time. Be the same guy in uniform and out of it.” May we all reflect on Mr. Dami’s words as we continue in our dedication to public service.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of John P. Dami, at nine minutes past ten o'clock A.M., on motion of Mr. Ross, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Thursday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
