The bill was signed by the President and sent to the House for enactment.

Order.

Messrs. Tarr, Fattman, deMacedo, Humason, O'Connor and Tran presented an Order requesting the opinions of the Honorable the Justices of the Supreme Judicial on important question of law relative to the House Bill relative to abusive practices to change sexual orientation and gender identity in minors (House, No. 140) (with the a pending Senate amendment, Senate document numbered 2187) (Senate, No. 2189);

Supreme Judicial Court opinion.

Ordered, Whereas, On March 13, 2019, the House of Representatives engrossed, H140 An Act relative to abusive practices to change sexual orientation and gender identity in minors, by a vote of 148 Yeas-8 Nays;

Whereas, on March 18, 2019, H140 was received by the Senate and referred to the Senate Committee on Rules;

Whereas, on March 25, 2019, the Senate Committee on Rules reported the bill be placed in the Orders of the Day for Thursday, March 28, 2019 with an amendment, inserting in place of H140 the text of S2187;

Whereas, H140 and S2187 seek to regulate the manner in which state-licensed therapists provide treatment for a minor seeking assistance with issues related to sexual orientation and gender identity;

Whereas, grave doubt exists as to the constitutionality of H140 and S2187 under Article 16 of the Massachusetts Declaration of Rights and the First Amendment of the United States Constitution;

Whereas, grave doubt exists as to the constitutionality of H140 and S2187 in relation to the fundamental rights of parents and their interest in the care, custody and control of their children;

Whereas, The Supreme Court of the United States has long protected the First Amendment rights of professionals, most recently in the case of National Institute of Family and Life Advocates, dba NIFLA, et al v. Becerra, Attorney General of California, et al, 585 U.S. ___ (2018);

Whereas, The Supreme Court of the United States in Troxel v. Granville, 537 U.S. 57

(2000) reaffirmed that parents have a fundamental right to control the upbringing of their children;

Whereas, on January 30, 2019, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division in the case of Robert L. Vazzo, David H. Pickup, Soli Deo Gloria International, Inc. d/b/a New Hears Outreach Tampa Bay v. City of Tampa, Case No. 8:17-cv-2896-T-02AAS held that a ban on conversion therapy in Tampa is partially blocked due to a violation of the therapists' free-speech rights under the First Amendment; and Ordered, that the opinions of the Honorable Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court be required by the Senate upon the following important questions of law:

1. Does the bill as currently written violate the provisions of the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution or Article 16 of the Massachusetts Constitution regarding Free Speech, as they pertain to the professional speech of health care providers such as mental health counselors?

2. Does the present language of the bill violate the constitutional rights of parents as defined in Troxel v. Granville, 537 U.S.57 (2000)?

3. Does the present language of the bill violate any constitutional or statutory rights of privacy or patient confidentiality?

There being no objection, the order was considered forthwith.

After remarks, the question on adoption of the Order was determined by a call of the yeas and nays, at one minute past three o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, as follows to wit (yeas 6 – nays 32) [Yeas and Nays No. 15]:

Statement of Senator Viriato M. deMacedo

We want to be clear that we do not support conversion therapy or any other type of coercive therapy that purports to change a person's sexuality or gender identity. If there were evidence of these practices taking place in Massachusetts we would wholeheartedly support banning them. However, we have serious concerns about the way this legislation infringes on the constitutional rights of licensed professionals to provide mental health counseling and talk therapy using the knowledge, judgment, and expertise that they have acquired through years of study and practice. The vague wording of the legislation provides too much room for interpretation in an area that requires caution and precision from government intervention. By voting “present” we hoped to register our concerns while making it clear that these types of coercive therapies have no place in the Commonwealth.

On motion of Mr. Tarr, the above statement was ordered printed in the Journal of the Senate.

Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Brownsberger--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M., and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Time of meeting.

Moment of Silence.

The President, the members, guests and staff stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of the Robert B. Ambler.

Moment of Silence.

Adjournment in Memory of Robert B. Ambler

The Senator from Plymouth and Norfolk, Mr. O'Connor, moves that when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory of former Representative Robert B. Ambler.

On Sunday, February 3, 2019, former Weymouth State Representative and Robert "Bob" Ambler passed away at the age of 92. His last moments were spent surrounded by his loving family in his Florida home where he had retired.

Bob was born in 1927 in East Braintree to Eric and Hazel Ambler. When he was 11 years old, the family moved to Weymouth where he was raised and educated before leaving Weymouth High School early to enlist in the U.S. Navy in 1944 until the end of World War II in 1946.

When he returned, after obtaining his diploma, he briefly worked at the Quincy Shipyard then started his career as a lineman and then leader lineman for his first ten years at Boston Edison.

On Valentine's Day of 1953, Bob married his wife, Gloria, and they settled in Weymouth, where they raised their three children, Debbie, Steve, and Scott.

In the ensuing years, they made many treasured memories there and on Cape Cod with their growing family and many friends.

Bob was later elected Business Agent for Local 369 UWUA AFL-CIO for the next 30 years until his retirement from the union.

Over his lifetime, Bob's core belief was to treat people with decency, honesty, and kindness. He always spoke of his passion for helping people from all walks of life and standing up for what is right.

As a union agent, Bob felt very fortunate to be in a position to help others, which led him into service as a Massachusetts state representative for 26 years, serving the Fourth Norfolk District from 1964 to 1990.

For four of those years, he also served on the Weymouth Board of Selectmen. One of his proudest accomplishments was preserving Weymouth's Web Park, not only because of its natural beauty, but also because it is the close neighbor of the Arc of the South Shore which helps individuals with disabilities reach their full potential.

In 2007, the Web Park walking trail was dedicated to Bob for creating the park and securing its funding.

In his extensive career, Bob enacted over 100 statutes that were of both statewide and local significance. This included legislation that helped create the Massachusetts State Lottery, returning the State's drinking age to 21, and legalizing Bingo.

Bob also made sure to equally contribute his time and efforts to his hometown of Weymouth. He helped secure $12 million for the completion of Weymouth's sewer system, $14 million for the renovation of Lakeview Manor Public Housing, $4 million for the construction of the William Connell Memorial Rink and Pool and $5 million construction of a new water treatment plant.

Bob loved golfing, all Boston sports, and socializing with Gloria and their many friends, often over dinner. He and Gloria also enjoyed traveling the world with their friends and family. Most of all, he loved simply spending quality time with his loved ones.

In the 1990s, Bob consulted for Delta Dental for several years. At the end of his career and into retirement, Bob and Gloria lived on Cape Cod and spent the winter months in Marco Island and recently moved to Marco Island year-round.

Bob was predeceased by his son Steve and grandson Kory, and he will be lovingly remembered by his wife of 66 years, Gloria Ambler of Marco Island, his children Debbie Donaldson and her husband Rob of Florida and Scott Ambler and his wife Pam of Weymouth. Bob will also be missed by his grandchildren Sarah (Patrick) Mulcahy, Nick (Kerrin), Mike Donaldson, Brooke (Chris) Manlisc, Shanna (Bryce) Beavers, and Whitney, by his daughter-in-law Lauren (Paul) Luttrell, granddaughter-in-law Jodi Newel and great-grandsons, Corado and Benjamin.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of Robert B. Ambler, at twenty-two minutes past four o'clock P.M., on motion of Ms. Creem, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
