Adjournment in Memory of John Cahalane.

Mr. Cyr moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in memory of John J. Cahalane of Mashpee. On June 8, 2019, John passed away at age 72 during convalescence after a major surgery.

John was raised in the Boston area, and moved to Mashpee in 1972 with his late wife Christine (Dulchinos) Cahalane. Together, they opened The Farm restaurant. Soon after, John delved into public service.

John served on the Mashpee Board of Selectmen for two decades and seven terms, where he became an admired and respected institution. In his extensive tenure, John took on many roles and displayed remarkable leadership, serving as both Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. John also served as a Mashpee Sewer Commissioner, Mashpee Housing Authority member, Human Services Committee member, as Chairman of the Mashpee Environmental Oversight Committee, Cape Cod Regional Transit Authority Advisory Board member, and as one of the first members of the Cape Cod Special Olympics Committee. During his time as the Chairman of the Mashpee Human Services Committee, John helped ensure the posterity of the Substance Use Task Force's monthly "Drop-In Nights" through his key efforts to secure the program's funding.

John lent his expertise as a liaison in the town's work with the Mashpee Wampanoag Tribe, where he fostered and maintained close relationships. He also owned a toy store in Mashpee Commons, where he demonstrated a keen business sense. John was recognized on various occasions for his dedication to the betterment of the town of Mashpee, including his Municipal Distinguished Service Award from the Mashpee Chamber of Commerce. Just a week before his death, John was recognized as the first ever Dean of the Mashpee Board of Selectman. He was respected by many, and continuously used his intelligence, wisdom, and perseverance to improve the town of Mashpee.

We are grateful for John's dedicated public service, and mourn the passing of such a distinguished member of the community. John is remembered by his partner Karen Fisher, his aunt, Peg Duddy; niece, Jean Duddy; and his beloved dog, Molly, fellow members of the SelectBoard and by many Mashpee residents.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of John J. Cahalane and Richard P. Bastien, at five minutes before five o'clock PM, on motion of Mr. Humason, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
