JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

Thursday, July 25, 2019.

Met at four minutes past one o'clock P.M. (Ms. Creem in the Chair) (having been appointed by the President, under authority conferred by Senate Rule 4, to perform the duties of the Chair).

The Chair (Ms. Creem), members, guests and staff then recited the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Pledge of Allegiance.

Distinguished Guests.

There being no objection, the Chair (Ms. Creem) handed the gavel to Mr. Tran for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. Tran then introduced, on the Rostrum, Lavender Elizabeth Darcangelo from Fitchburg. Lavender is a 24 year old young woman, with multiple disabilities, including being both blind and autistic. Despite these challenges, she maintains a positive outlook and continuously strives to be an inspiration to others. She was recognized for recently becoming an internet sensation through a video that went viral of her singing a rendition of the song "Part of Your World" from Disney's "The Little Mermaid". She was accompanied by her two fathers, Wil and Jamie. Lavender addressed the Senate by singing the National Anthem, she was presented with a Senate Citation, which she read aloud and was applauded for her accomplishments.

There being no objection, the Chair (Ms. Creem) handed the gavel to Mr. Lewis for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. Lewis then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, a group of valedictorians from his district. Among the group were: William Stevens from Wakefield, Felix Li from Malden, Nicola Tysall from Melrose and Megan Coram from Reading. Angela McKenzie from Stoneham was also recognized as a valedictorian, but was not in attendance. Isabella Castro, an intern in Senator Lewis's office, was recognized for having the idea to celebrate these graduates. The Senate applauded their accomplishments and they withdrew from the Chamber.

Valedictorians from 5th Middlesex District.

There being no objection, during consideration of the Orders of the Day, the Chair (Ms. Creem) handed the gavel to Mr. Timilty for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. Timilty then introduced, in the well of the Chamber, the Children's Choir of Greater Paris under the direction of Professor Francis Bardot. The group consisted of 45 young students who were visiting the United States to perform a summer concert at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross. They were accompanied by conductor Raphaëlle Boutillier and pianist Laurent Jochum. The choir addressed the Senate by singing two national anthems: The Star-Spangled Banner and La Marseillaise, the Senate welcomed them with applause and they withdrew from the Chamber.

Pending the question on adoption of the amendment previously recommended by the committee on Ways and Means, substituting a new draft with the same title (Senate, No. 2294) and pending the main question on ordering the bill to a third reading, Mr. Tarr moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting at the end thereof the following sections:-

“SECTION __. Chapter 71 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding after section 2 the following new section:

Section 2D. The advisory council on violence prevention established by section 1G of chapter 15 of the General Laws shall recommend for approval by the board of education a model curriculum for grades two through eight, inclusive in Child Exploitation Awareness Education. For the purposes of this section, the phrase “child exploitation” shall include child abduction or child sexual abuse.

1) School districts shall incorporate the content of child exploitation awareness education guidelines that is age appropriate into the existing health curriculum framework for students in second grade through eighth grade, inclusive.

2) Child exploitation awareness education may include, but need not be limited to, defining child exploitation, recognizing types of child exploitation and creating awareness of warning signs of child exploitation.

3) In order to assist school districts, the advisory council, in consultation with at least one organization addressing child exploitation, shall develop model guidelines that school districts shall incorporate into an existing health curriculum. The department shall also provide age-appropriate educational materials regarding child exploitation awareness for the purpose of assisting school districts in preparing an instructional program on child exploitation awareness. The department may use educational materials that are already publicly available for this purpose.

4) A parent or legal guardian of a participating student, within a reasonable period of time after the request is made, shall be permitted to examine the child exploitation awareness education program instructional materials at the school in which the students is enrolled.

5) At the request of a parent or guardian, a student shall be excused from all or parts of the child exploitation awareness educational program. The principal shall notify all parents or guardians of their ability to withdraw their children from instruction in the program by returning a signed opt-out form, after the parent or guardian has reviewed the instructional materials.

6) The department shall require yearly certification and training to all educational staff and consultants using digital means, and or in a classroom setting. Such training shall address child sexual assault, sex offender profile training, healthy sexual behavioral training, requirements of mandated reporters, and how to report.”

After debate, the question on adoption of the amendment was determined by a call of

Christie Getto
Young.

On motion of Mr. DiDomenico--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M., and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Time of meeting.

Adjournment in Memory of David T. Doyle.

The Senator from Essex, Ms. Lovely, moved that when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory of the Honorable David T. Doyle.

David T. Doyle, retired Presiding Justice of the Salem District Court, died peacefully on Sunday, June 2, 2019, surrounded by his loving family.

David was born in Peabody on November 30, 1928, to the late Joseph F. Doyle and Mary Alice (Hayes) Doyle. He grew up in Salem with his eight brothers and three sisters. The nine Doyle brothers had their own baseball and basketball teams and competed throughout New England and as far away as North Carolina.

After graduating from Salem High School in 1946, David joined the Army and served as a sergeant in the post-war occupation of Japan from 1946-1948. He attended Boston University on the GI Bill. After graduating, he was employed by Kemper Insurance where he met his future wife Antoinette. David attended Suffolk University Law School evenings, graduating in 1957. He then joined Kemper's legal department, Weber, Rooney and Riley. Subsequently he joined his father, Joseph, and brother, Joe, in the family law firm in Salem. He was elected to the Salem City Council for two terms before resigning to become a judge.

David was appointed to the bench by Governor Endicott "Chub" Peabody in 1964.

He retired as the presiding judge in Salem in November 1998. At the time of his retirement, Judge Doyle was the longest serving judge in Massachusetts. In a Boston Globe article in 1998, writer Kathy McCabe said, David Doyle "will be judged favorably for 35 years on the bench." Judge Doyle was remembered as a kind and understanding jurist who served with dignity. In April 2001, Judge Doyle was featured in a Salem News article honoring the "Heroes of Salem." Courtroom G of the new Ruane Judicial Center was dedicated to Judge Doyle in November 2017. A plaque outside the courtroom reads, "A humble jurist who served the community with honor, integrity, and compassion for 35 years."

Judge Doyle enjoyed golf, attending his children and grandchildren's sporting events, and reading. He was an avid Boston sports fan and also loved Notre Dame football.

He is survived by his loving wife of 60 years, Antoinette (Neveux) Doyle and his children, Rev. Michael J. Doyle of Danvers; Hon. Peter F. Doyle and his wife Leigh of Topsfield; Kathleen J. Doyle of Danvers; Mary-Alice Doyle Norton and her husband Michael of Georgetown; and six grandchildren with whom he loved spending time: Elizabeth, Philip, Madeline, and John Doyle; and Colin and Courtney Norton. He is also survived by a sister, Ellen Tassinari of Beverly, and a brother, Louis Doyle of Danvers, and many nieces and nephews. Judge Doyle was predeceased by his brothers, Joe, Jack, Jim, Richard ("Sammy,"), Peter, Philip, and Thomas; and sisters Mary and Ann Kiley.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of David T. Doyle, at half past three o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Barrett, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
