Moment of silence.

Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Tarr,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M., and the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Time of meeting.

Adjournment in Memory of State Trooper 1st Class Thomas William Devlin.

The Senator from Essex and Middlesex, Mr. Tarr moves that the when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory of State Trooper 1st Class Thomas William Devlin, 58 of Wilmington. Trooper Devlin passed away on September 3, 2020 from injuries sustained in the line of duty when he was struck by a motorist two years ago while conducting a motor vehicle stop on Route 3 in Billerica. Tom was born on December 18, 1961 in Boston and was raised in Lexington the youngest of seven children. He was a member of the 66th RTT graduating from the State police Academy on December 6, 1985.

Tom trained in the State Police Barracks in Grafton and went on to serve in the State Police barracks in Weston, Framingham, Andover, and his last assignment was with the State Police barracks in Concord. Throughout, Trooper Devlin's 35-year career, he patrolled every highway and secondary roadway in Eastern Massachusetts. He earned the Medal of Lifesaving in 1999, State Police Troop Commendation in 2004, and the State Police Division Commendation in 2015.

As close friends and family can attest, Tom was an incredible man of God, husband, father, and citizen. He would willingly and generously give endless time, money, and resources to those that he loved. Time spent at home for Tom included chopping firewood out back behind his house, watching movies with his boys, snuggling with his dog Sheena, listening to Mumford and Sons, and sitting on his favorite recliner on the porch. Tom's sense of humor was one his best qualities and helped carry him through whatever life would throw at him.

Over the past two years, Tom had undergone six major surgeries to reconcile the numerous injuries internally and externally he sustained when he was struck by motorist while conducting a routine traffic stop at the end of his patrol shift. Tom relied heavily on faith and family, his life is a testament to faithfulness and mercy, never once complaining or feeling sorry for himself. His smile, laughter, and character will be sorely missed by all who were lucky enough to experience them. Above all else, he was an incredible husband, father, brother, uncle, and son; kind, resourceful, patient, driven, and dedicated. His formidable career on the Massachusetts State Police reflected each of these traits all the more.

Trooper Devlin was predeceased by his parents Paul and Mary Devlin. Trooper Devlin is survived by his wife and best friend of 27 years Nancy Elaine (Peterson) Devlin, his children Matthew William Devlin, Rachel Claire Devlin, Paul Thomas Devlin and Hannah Elaine Devlin, all of Wilmington. His brother Paul, his sisters Mary Fredrickson & husband Peter, Eileen MacPherson & husband Keith, Kathleen Devlin, Patricia Puopolo husband Francis, and Lt. James Devlin. Treasured brother-in-law of Stephen & Jeanne Peterson, Robert & Carla Peterson, James & Kimberly Peterson, Cynthia & Kevin Kilday, and Michael & Susan Peterson of Westford. Tom is further survived by scores of nieces, nephews, friends, and fellow troopers and police officers who adored him.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of State Trooper 1st Class Thomas William Devlin, at twenty-nine minutes before twelve o'clock noon, on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
