Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Tarr,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Thursday next at eleven o’clock A.M. in full formal session with a calendar.

Time of meeting.

Adjournment in Memory of Joseph “Joe” Ernest Pascucci.

The Senator from Essex and Middlesex, Mr. Tarr, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory Joseph “Joe” Ernest Pascucci, 70, of Middleton who passed away unexpectedly on January 4th.

Joe was born on January 13, 1950, in Revere to Antonio “Tony” and Evelyn Pascucci. He was the oldest brother to Stephen “Stevie” Pascucci and Anthony M. Pascucci. He was a graduate of Boston Trade. He raised his family in Middleton and was known lovingly as Papa Joe.

Joe worked as a professional baseball umpire for over 25 years. He was a part of the MLB Gulf Coast League (July 1970 to July 1971), Florida State League (June 1971 to June 1973), Southern League (January 1973 to January 1976), and Pacific Coast League (December 1975 to December 1977), and then moving to Double-A Baseball after, allowing him to travel to almost every state in the continental US and abroad, including Mexico and South America.

Aside from being on the baseball field, Joseph was an assistant football coach at Curry College alongside his best friend, Michael Brown. Later in his life, Joseph was a football official for the ANEFO association and other various MA football associations. He never truly gave up on the chance to coach football again and was the Assistant Head Football Coach to Lynn Classical High School. Joe also worked for a number of years for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts at the Department of Unemployment and Training.

Joe was a pillar of the Middleton community as well. He served as a Selectman for the Town of Middleton for nine years. Also, he served as the president of the Eastern Massachusetts Baseball Umpires Association (EMBUA) from 2009-2010. He continued to be recognized as a great community leader and won various community service awards up until the end of his life.

Joe enjoyed music, especially Earth, Wind & Fire, and Billy Joel. Above all else, though he enjoyed spending time with his three beautiful daughters, Christina Pascucci-Ciampa, Stephanie Pascucci, and Kimberly Pascucci. As a family, they loved to travel to places like Disney World, Niagara Falls, and throughout the Midwest. The girls enjoyed watching their Dad umpire baseball games and sing Earth, Wind & Fire while doing the Pascucci version of “Carpool Karaoke”. Joseph was a culinary expert. Always in the kitchen whipping up Italian dishes and delicious meals that filled the belly and heart. He would do anything for anyone – always putting others before himself. His generosity was unsurpassed. Joseph found tremendous joy in the relationships he built with friends and family and will be greatly missed by the many people he loved so much.

Joe is survived by his three daughters, Christina Pascucci-Ciampa, Stephanie Pascucci, and Kimberly Pascucci. He was the brother of the late Stephen A. Pascucci. Joe is survived by his brother Anthony M., wife Joanne, and nephew, Anthony D. Pascucci.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of Joseph “Joe” Ernest Pascucci, at twenty minutes past eleven o’clock A.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Thursday next at eleven o’clock A.M.
