On motion of Mr. Tarr,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Thursday next at eleven o’clock A.M., and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Time of meeting.

Adjournment in Memory of Francis W. O'Brien.

The Chair, Mr. Rush, moved that when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory of Francis W. O'Brien of Dedham.

Commissioner Fran O'Brien, a lifelong resident of Dedham, passed away on April 25, 2021 at the age of 91. A true public servant, Fran was a retired employee of the Mass Bay Transportation Authority, a former Norfolk County Commissioner, and served the town of Dedham for 65 years in many capacities in elected office. As former member of the Board of Selectmen, the Parks and Recreation Commission, the Board of Assessors, the Democratic Town Committee, and the Charter Commission, Commissioner O'Brien was known for putting others first, always. He was an unbelievable asset to county government and an extremely reliable resource to residents and local officials in the town of Dedham. Commissioner O'Brien was an extremely proud United States Navy Veteran.

Commissioner O'Brien was the beloved husband for 66 years of the late Nancy (Kennedy) O'Brien. Father to Francis M. O'Brien and his wife Mariann, Jacqueline A. Conley and her husband Kevin of Dedham, Cynthia A. Glennon and her husband Thomas and the late Marlene M. McLeish and her surviving husband Paul. Loving grandfather of David, William, Jeffrey, Gregory, Amanda, Patrick, and Sean.

Commissioner O'Brien had a saying that he would tell other elected officials whom he dealt with and First Assistant Treasurer of the Commonwealth, Jim MacDonald, in giving Commissioner O'Brien's eulogy related this saying that the Commissioner would share with other elected officials, and I quote Commissioner O'Brien, "When you're in you're in and when you're out, you're out. But if you did the right things when you were in, you are never out!"

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Francis W. O'Brien, at twenty minutes before twelve o'clock noon, on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Thursday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
