Adjournment in Memory of Michael F. Schulze.

The Senator from Essex, Ms. Lovely, presented a request that when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory of Michael F. Schulze, husband of 50 years of Mary (Williams) Schulze of Peabody, who died on April 28, 2021, at the Edith Nourse Rodgers Veteran's Memorial Hospital in Bedford following a long battle with cancer.

Born March 13, 1945, in Lynn, he was the son of the late Frank H. and Priscilla (Turpel) Schulze. He was a proud 1965 graduate of Lynn English High School.

During the Vietnam War, Mike served his country in the U.S. Navy. As a loyal member of VP 24, Mike and his shipmates tracked Russian subs off the coast of Iceland.

After serving his country, Mike spent 45 years working in the auto industry. Mike's love for cars and natural outgoing personality allowed him to thrive as a car salesman. He was well-respected by his long-term customers throughout the North Shore. He worked at Anderson Foreign Motors in Woburn, Volvo Village in Brookline, and 25 years as Used Car Manager at Stutz Volvo in Salem.

Outside of work, Mike's passion was politics and civic engagement. He served as a consultant for a number of campaigns at the local, state, and national level. Starting in 1982, he worked diligently in every campaign of Secretary of State John F. Kerry. He was elected twice as national delegate to Democratic National Convention. First, in 1984 for Senator Gary Hart (D-Colo.) with his mother, Priscilla, and again in 2004 for Kerry.

Mike also thrived in local politics. He served three terms as the Chairman of the Peabody Democratic City Committee. Mike's volunteer spirit led him to serve on a number of local and state committees. He was a founding member of the Peabody J.C.'s, Past President of the AOH in Division 11 in Peabody, Chair of the Peabody Community Preservation Committee, and Commissioner of the Essex Heritage Board. Mike was honored to be named 2019 Democrat of the Year by the Peabody Democratic City Committee. He was also recognized for his years of community service, particularly his work to preserve Brooksby Farm, by having a street named in his honor near the farm.

Mike loved music, especially Bob Dylan, art, history and genealogy, and antiques and collectibles. Many a Sunday he spent at antique stores and flea markets with his son looking for political memorabilia for his collection. He also loved to travel, especially to Ireland where he visited multiple times to enjoy the scenery, visit Mary's relatives, and enjoy a Guinness.

Most important to Mike was his family. He was a devoted husband, father, and father-in-law. In addition to his wife, Mike is survived by his son Joshua of Salem, Oregon; son-in-law Bernardo J. Castro; his adored aunt Mrs. Avis McClennan of Stoneham; in-laws James and Patricia Williams of South Hamilton; nieces, nephews, grand-nieces and grand-nephews; and several close cousins throughout Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Florida. Besides his parents, Mike was predeceased by his brothers David (Kathy) and Mark.

The family wish to thank all of those who took time to visit and call during Mike's long illness. The kindness of neighbors, friends, and family is appreciated beyond words. The family would also like to thank the nurses and caregivers of Care Dimensions and the VA for their outstanding care during Mike's illness.

Adjournment in Memory of Bernard John Taracevicz.

The Senator from Norfolk, Bristol and Plymouth, Mr. Timilty, moved that when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory of Bernard John Taracevicz of Milton, a Seagram's company manager, who passed away peacefully at Beth Israel Hospital. He was 86 years old.

Born in Cambridge, and raised in Malden, he was the youngest of five children born to immigrant parents from Poland, Fabian Sr. and Katarzyna (Smiarkowska) Taracevicz. Bernie was eight years old when his mother died of bone cancer in 1943, leaving him to be raised by his three sisters – Edna, Adele and Joann. Bernie attended Malden Catholic High School, where he captained the Lancers football team, played basketball, and ran track. It was the springboard to a college education at Holy Cross, where he received a football scholarship to play for the Crusaders as both an offensive lineman and a linebacker.

Bernie graduated from Holy Cross in 1956 with a Bachelor's degree in Economics. After his college graduation, Bernie, who had trained three previous summers in the US Marine Corps Platoon Leaders Course, attended Officer Training School in Quantico, Virginia, and was commissioned as a second lieutenant. While at Quantico, he played football for the Quantico Marines before his honorable discharge in 1958.

Bernie met his future wife, Barbara, during his senior year in high school, rekindled their friendship while he was home for the holidays from college and she was working as a clerk at the US Post Office in Malden. Their relationship later blossomed into a romance that led to their marriage in 1959.

Bernie put his polished social skills, keen business intellect, and gregarious personality to work in the spirits industry, rising up the ranks of the Seagram's organization in the 1960s-70s from a merchandising representative in Massachusetts, to assistant state manager in Western New York, to Connecticut state manager of the company's Eastern Division, forging countless lasting friendships and valuable business contacts along the way. Although he later retired from the spirits industry, Bernie kept his hand in the business, developing with his late partner, Jack Buckley, a formula for "an uncommonly thick" Bloody Mary mix they took to market as the cleverly-named, "Jack and Bernie's Bloody Mary Mix," which can be found to this day on supermarket shelves.

Bernie was one of the more beloved members at Wollaston Golf Club in Milton, where he enjoyed summer rounds of golf with his dear friends, delighting in astonishing opponents with "Bernie Pars," fashioned from impossibly unsalvageable long-distance putts or improbable par-saving chips from the rough. Of the 19th hole, though, Bernie was the undisputed champion, where his legion of admirers at the club often gravitated to his magnetic personality.

Off the course, Bernie was an avid devotee of Boston professional and college sports. He devoured newspapers, magazines and books and was a voracious reader of historical biographies, spy novels, and thrillers. He loved to watch the television game show "Jeopardy," often with a Manhattan bourbon cocktail, and beat his chest when he solved the answer to the Final Jeopardy question. He and Barbara loved – and lived – to entertain guests for dinner at their lovely home in Milton, where good spirits were often shared as well as imbibed and a good meal was always enjoyed by all. Their hospitality was the touchstone of every memorable family gathering during the holidays, a roundup which he always marked with a solemn prayer at the start of proceedings.

Bernie, who was a parishioner at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church in Milton, was predeceased by a 5-year-old brother, Fabian, Jr., in 1929, his mother in 1943, his father in 1969, his sisters Adele (Neumyer) in 1998, and Joann (O'Brien) in 2018, with his eldest sister, Edna (Carroll), the sole surviving sibling at 99 years old.

He is survived by his wife Barbara (Lauro) of Milton, their four children: Deirdre Taracevicz-Berg and her husband, Robert, of Milton, Steven Taracevicz of Jupiter, Florida, Barbara Vega and her husband, Michael, of Milton, Bernard Taracevicz, Jr. of San Francisco, California, and eight grandchildren: Trent and Ava Berg of Milton, Victor Taracevicz of San Luis Obispo, California, James Taracevicz of Los Angeles, California, Misha and Luca Taracevicz, of Basel, Switzerland, Natalia and Noel Vega of Milton.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Michael F. Schulze and Bernard

UNCORRECTED PROOF.

John Taracevicz, at twenty-six minutes past eleven o'clock A.M., on motion of Mr. O'Connor, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Tuesday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
