After remarks and pending the question on adoption of the amendment, previously recommended by the committee on Ways and Means, substituting a new draft with the same title (Senate, No. 2558), and pending the main question on ordering the bill to a third reading, Messrs. Lesser and Tarr moved that the proposed new draft be amended by adding the following section:-

“SECTION 7. Chapter 115 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 2C the following section:-

Section 2D. (a) To the extent practicable, the commissioner shall make information on civilian licensure and certification opportunities available to members of the armed forces of the United States or commonwealth and to veterans. The information shall be made available in a format that allows the member or veteran to evaluate the suitability of member’s or veteran’s military training and skills to the corresponding requirements of civilian licenses and certifications available in the commonwealth and shall include, but not be limited to, information on: (i) the civilian occupational equivalents of military or other occupational specialties based on the corresponding branch of the military; (ii) civilian license or certification requirements, including examination requirements; (iii) the availability and opportunities for use of educational benefits; (iv) corresponding training; and (v) continuing education opportunities that provide a pathway to licensure or
The information required under this section shall be made available by the commissioner to members of the armed forces of the United States or commonwealth and to veterans in a manner consistent with the Transition Goals Plans Success program administered under the Transition Assistance Program pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 1144.

(b) The commissioner shall, for purposes of providing educational assistance for licensure and certification to members of the armed forces of the United States or commonwealth and veterans, and in compliance with national security and state and federal privacy requirements, compile information related to military training and skills including, but not limited to: (i) course training curricula and syllabi; (ii) levels of military advancement; (iii) professional skill development; and (iv) specific civilian occupational equivalents of military or other occupational specialties. To carry out this section, the commissioner shall make such information available to the division of occupational licensure, the executive office of public safety, the department of public health, the executive office of labor and workforce development, the registry of motor vehicles and any other agency approved by the commissioner. The commissioner shall make the information publicly available on the department’s website.”

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

Messrs. Velis, Timilty and Tarr moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting before section 1 the following 2 sections:-

“SECTION A1. The first paragraph of section 9 of chapter 15A of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out clause (t), as appearing in the 2020 Official Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following clause:-

(t) issue regulations defining resident of the commonwealth and proof of the same for the purpose of admission and tuition expenses of public institutions of higher education and prepare uniform proofs of residence to be used by all public institutions; provided, however, that insofar as the Massachusetts Maritime Academy is designated a regional maritime academy by the United States Maritime Administration, residents of the states comprising the designated region and attending the Massachusetts Maritime Academy shall be considered Massachusetts residents for the purposes of admission and tuition; provided further, that a person who is: (i) a member of the armed forces of the United States and stationed in the commonwealth on active duty pursuant to military orders; (ii) the spouse of a person who is a member of the armed forces of the United States and stationed in the commonwealth pursuant to military orders; or (iii) an unemancipated person whose parent or guardian is a member of the armed forces of the United States and stationed in the commonwealth pursuant to military orders, shall be considered Massachusetts residents for the purposes of admission and tuition.

SECTION A2. Said chapter 15A is hereby further amended by inserting after section 19½ the following section:-

Section 19¾. A person who is a member of the armed forces of the United States and stationed in the commonwealth pursuant to military orders shall be entitled to classification as an in-state student. Such a person shall not lose classification as an in-state student due to being transferred on military orders, being honorably discharged or retiring while the person is residing in the commonwealth after their acceptance for matriculation at a constituent unit of the state system of higher education in a course of study leading to an associate, bachelor or post-graduate degree.

The spouse of a person who is a member of the armed forces of the United States and stationed in the commonwealth pursuant to military orders shall be entitled to classification as an in-state student. Such a spouse shall not lose classification as an in-state student due to the member being transferred on military orders, being honorably discharged, retiring or dying while the spouse is residing in the commonwealth after the spouse’s acceptance for matriculation at a constituent unit of the state system of higher education in a course of study leading to an associate, bachelor or post-graduate degree.

An unemancipated person whose parent or guardian is a member of the armed forces of the United States and stationed in the commonwealth pursuant to military orders shall be entitled to classification as an in-state student. Such a person shall not lose classification as an in-state student due to their parent or guardian being transferred on military orders, being honorably discharged, retiring or dying while the person is in continuous attendance toward the degree for which the person is currently enrolled; or (ii) the person is residing in the commonwealth after their acceptance for matriculation at a constituent unit of the state system of higher education in a course of study leading to an associate, bachelor or post-graduate degree.”

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Barrett moved that the proposed new draft be amended by adding the following section:-

“SECTION 7. Section 6B of chapter 71 of the General Laws shall not affect or impair any agreement in effect upon the effective date of this act that designates a school district for enrollment of a military-connected student and any such agreement may be amended or renewed subsequent to the effective date of this act.”

The amendment was adopted.

Moment of Silence.

The Chair (Mr. Brownberger), members, guests and staff stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of Rita Turo.

Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Tarr,-- Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Monday next at eleven o’clock A.M., and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Adjournment in Memory of Rita Turo.

The Senator from Worcester, Ms. Chandler, moved that when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory of Rita Turo.

Rita Turo, beloved mother and grandmother, died peacefully on September 5, 2021. She was 83 years old.

Rita was born in Worcester on St. Patrick's Day and lived in the city for most of her life before moving to West Boylston in 2003. She relocated to Florida in 2018 to be closer to her son David and her young grandchildren.

Rita worked in the Massachusetts Legislature for more than three decades as a Chief of Staff to former representative Kevin O’Sullivan, to former Senator Bob Bernstein, and finally to Senator Harriette L. Chandler.

But the Senate was even more than work: Rita was lucky to count Senator Anne Gobi as a beloved sister-in-law.

And Rita inspired innumerable staffers with her intelligence and wit, some of whom still work in the Senate today, and count her as an inspiration and beloved friend.

Rita was the loving mother of sons David Turo and wife Jacqueline, and Jay Turo and wife Shelmin, and the joyful grandmother of Jay Jay, Teddy, Jocelyn, and Jackson.

She was the Widow of Thomas J. Head Jr., stepmother of Jeffrey Head and wife Erika, Kimberly McGhee and husband Richard, Melissa O’Brien and husband Timothy, and Joshua Head and wife Emily.

Today the Senate meets in a building where Rita dedicated so much of herself to her hometown and to the Commonwealth. Her spirit fills the halls and echoes from Worcester to Florida.

She will be greatly missed for her passionate spirit and kindness.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Rita Turo, at twenty-eight minutes before one o’clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o’clock A.M.
