Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Tarr,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M., and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Time of meeting.

Adjournment in Memory of Edward J. "Chip" Clancy Jr.

The Senator from Essex, Mr. Crighton, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in memory of former State Representative, State Senator, and Lynn Mayor Edward J. "Chip" Clancy Jr., who passed away on June 6, 2021 at the age of 70. He is survived by his wife Linda J. (Delford) Ryan-Clancy; his stepchildren Sean Mills and his fiancé Vanessa Carr and Daniel Ryan and his wife Shannon of Woburn; his grandchildren, Kaleigh, Jameson, Mason and Kensie; his sister-in-law Marjorie "Margie" Clancy of Lynn; his many loving nieces and nephews including Kevin and Michael Clancy, and Colleen Bransfield. Clancy leaves behind an enduring legacy of public service and selfless commitment to the City of Lynn.

The son of the late Edward J. "Nipper" and Claire M. Clancy, Clancy was born and raised in Lynn and dedicated his life to public service, and state and local politics. His father was a local politician, serving as Lynn's assessor, and was also a prominent local high school baseball coach. As a child, Clancy attended school in Lynn and graduated from St. Mary High School. In 1972, he received his Bachelor's Degree from Providence College and in 1975, he graduated with his Juris Doctorate from Suffolk Law School. After being admitted to the Massachusetts Bar on December 15, 1975, Clancy established his own law practice on Franklin Street in Lynn.

Clancy's political career began with his election to the Lynn City Council in 1978, where he served from 1978-1981. In 1984, he was elected as a City Councilor at large and served on the City Council through 1991. Looking to represent Lynn's interests in state government, Clancy then ran for the Massachusetts House of Representatives, winning a seat representing the 11th Essex District. Four years later, in 1995, he was elected to the State Senate, representing the 1st Essex District. He spent over a decade representing the people of Lynn on Beacon Hill.

In 2002, he became the city's 55th Mayor, and its first elected to a four-year term. As Mayor, he led the city through the tumultuous years post 9/11, with tenacity and an unswerving commitment to doing what was right for Lynn. As Mayor, Clancy oversaw construction of the new Manning Field, a modern sports facility where the previous Manning Bowl had stood, and guided the city through a period of economic challenges and transitions. Although his passion for politics propelled him forward in his career, it was his devotion to the city and its people, evident through his dedication to constituent services, that set Clancy apart. He truly loved being able to help his neighbors and committed each day to doing so.

Additionally, Clancy's legacy includes the establishment of The Nipper Clancy Tournament in 1982, honoring his father's contributions as baseball coach for the Connery and St. Mary's High School. His father, "Nipper," coached the late Red Sox player Tony Conigliaro, among others, and cultivated a strong community within baseball across the Greater Lynn area. Each year, scholarships are awarded through the tournament to students who compete.

Chip Clancy will be remembered as a great public servant, who represented his community for over thirty years. His abiding love for Lynn and its people will never be forgotten.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Edward J. "Chip" Clancy Jr., at a half past eleven o'clock A.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
