JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

Thursday, April 7, 2022.

Met at sixteen minutes past eleven o'clock A.M. (Mr. Brownsberger in the Chair) (having been appointed by the President, under authority conferred by Senate Rule 4, to perform the duties of the Chair).

The Chair (Mr. Brownsberger), members, guests and staff then recited the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Pledge of allegiance.

Distinguished Guest.

There being no objection, during consideration of the Orders of the Day, the Chair (Mr. Brownsberger) introduced, on the Rostrum, His Eminence Shyalpa Tenzin Rinpoche. He was born in the foothills of the Himalayan Mountains and was recognized as a holy child and began training as a lama from the age of four. Rinpoche attended the Buddhist university in Sarnath, India, and later received teachings, empowerments, and transmissions from many of the greatest Tibetan Buddhist masters of his time. With great compassion and wisdom, His Eminence teaches us how to actualize the essence of our precious human lives. He was presented with Senate and House Citations, addressed the Senate from the Rostrum, signed the guestbook and withdrew from the Chamber. He was accompanied by Representative Wong of Saugus.

His Eminence Shyalpa Tenzin Rinpoche.

Sent to the House for concurrence in the amendment.

The Senate Bill relative to social equity and host community agreements in the cannabis industry (Senate, No. 2660),-- was read a second time.

After remarks, and pending the question on adoption of the amendment previously recommended by the committee on Ways and Means, substituting a new draft entitled “An Act relative to equity in the cannabis industry” (Senate, No. 2801), and pending the main question on ordering the bill to a third reading, Messrs. Gomez, Eldridge and Lewis, Ms. Comerford, Ms. Moran, Ms. Rausch, Ms. Chang-Diaz, Ms. Edwards, Mr. Lesser, Ms. Jehlen and Messrs. Collins and Feeney moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting after section 13 the following 2 sections:-

“SECTION 13A. Section 100K of chapter 276 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out subsection (b) and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

(b) The court shall have the discretion to order an expungement pursuant to this section based on what is in the best interest of justice; provided, however, that if the petitioner seeks to expunge a record pursuant to this section for the possession or cultivation of an amount of marijuana decriminalized pursuant to section 32L of chapter 94C, section 13 of chapter 94G or any other law, or for possession with intent to distribute or distribution of marijuana, the court shall order the expungement of the record. Prior to entering an order of expungement pursuant to this section, the court shall hold a hearing if requested by the petitioner or the district attorney. Upon granting or denying a petition for expungement, the court shall enter written findings of fact.

Upon an order for expungement pursuant to this section and sections 100F, 100G and 100H, the trial court clerk’s office shall provide the petitioner with a certified copy of the order, the docket sheets and the criminal complaint related to the expunged charge. The commissioner of probation shall send a copy of the expungement order to the applicable police department and the department shall expunge any police record related to the expunged charge.

SECTION 13B. Said section 100K of said chapter 276, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by adding the following subsection:-

(d) An expungement order pursuant to this section or section 100F, section 100G or section 100H shall not preclude a court from exercising its jurisdiction over any subsequently filed motion to amend the record, post-judgment relief motion or petition or any other future collateral attack on an expunged conviction.”

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

Recess.

There being no objection, at four minutes past one o'clock P.M., the Chair (Mr. Brownsberger) declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair; and at twenty-two minutes past two o'clock P.M., the Senate reassembled, Mr. Brownsberger in the Chair.

Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Tarr,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M. and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Time of meeting.

Adjournment in Memory of Mark L. Jenkins.

The Senator from Norfolk and Plymouth, Mr. Keenan and the Senator from Plymouth and Norfolk, Mr. O'Connor moved that when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory of Mark L. Jenkins.

On March 11th, 2022, Mark L. Jenkins of Abington, formerly of Quincy, died suddenly at the age of 55.

Mark worked as a police officer for the Town of Cohasset Police Department and was a veteran of the U.S. Coast Guard. He will be remembered for his loyalty and generosity. He was always happiest being around other people and spending time with his family and friends. Mark would help anyone in need. In his youth, Mark enjoyed playing hockey. He enjoyed volunteering as a CCD teacher at St. Bridget's in Abington. He worked as a computer forensics expert for both the Criminal Investigation Division of the Cohasset Police Department as well as the United States Coast Guard Investigative Service. Mark's laugh was infectious and his larger than life presence will be greatly missed.

He was the son of the late Roland and Mary Jenkins. Beloved husband of Maria (Backlund) Jenkins. Loving father of Amy Greenough and her husband Alex of Rockland, Danielle Cirelli and her significant other Leo of Falmouth, Ryan Jenkins and his significant other Lori of California, and Lilly Jenkins of Abington. Proud "Bubby" of Lucas, Gabriel and Annabel. Loving brother of Peggie Gibeau of New York, Marietta Dompier of New Hampshire, and William Jenkins of Las Vegas, Nevada. Nephew of Charles and the late Rosemarie Quigley of Quincy; and Hazel and the late Michael Vecchi. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

He will be sorely missed by all that knew him as well as his colleagues in the law enforcement and public safety community.

Adjournment in Memory of Captain Ross Reynolds.

The Senator from Worcester and Middlesex, Mr. Cronin moved that when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory and recognition of Captain Ross Reynolds, United States Marine Corps.

On March 19, 2022, Captain Reynolds, a native of Leominster, Massachusetts was one of four marines killed in a helicopter crash during a NATO training exercise in Norway. While Captain Reynolds' time on earth was too short, his life was marked by an unwavering commitment to service and a love for his community and country. As the Mayor of Leominster said after learning of the tragedy, Ross Reynolds "always carried the flag."

A member of Troop 477 and an Eagle Scout, Captain Reynolds' dedication to his community was self-evident from an early age and his legacy is marked by the choices he made to serve others. He volunteered for Marine officer training, swore an oath to support and defend the constitution in active military service, and was selected for one of the most dangerous occupational specialties in the military: to serve as an Osprey pilot.

These choices put Captain Reynolds on the frontiers of the free world—on an overseas mission with NATO partners to deter current and future Russian aggression—at a time when no more important mission existed. Captain Reynolds embodied the spirit of "semper fidelis" remaining "always faithful" to his fellow marines and to the high ideals enshrined in our Constitution. As we adjourn, I ask the Senate to join me in a moment of silence to recognize Captain Reynolds' sacrifice and service to our Commonwealth and nation.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Mark L. Jenkins and Captain Ross Reynolds, at nine minutes before five o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
