JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

Thursday, April 13, 2023.

Met at three minutes past eleven o'clock A.M. (Mr. Brownsberger in the Chair).

The Chair (Mr. Brownsberger), members, guests and staff then recited the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Pledge of allegiance.

Distinguished Guests.

There being no objection, the Chair (Mr. Brownsberger) handed the gavel to Mr. Timilty for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. Timilty then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, staff and clients from House of Possibilities' Career and Community Access Program. This program provides both children and adults who experience intellectual and developmental challenges with a life-changing path to greater independence. The Senate welcomed them with applause, and they withdrew from the Chamber.

There being no objection, the Chair (Mr. Brownsberger) handed the gavel to Mr. Tarr for the purpose of an introduction. Mr. Tarr then introduced, in the rear of the Chamber, a group of Greek dignitaries that were visiting the State House in recognition of George Demeter Day and Parliamentary Law Month. George Demeter was recognized for his contributions to the parliamentary process and his dedication to the protection of the rights of individuals by insuring an orderly process. Among the group were: Boston Consul General of Greece, Symeon Tegos, President of the Alpha-Omega Council, Paul Tsitsopoulos, President of the George Demeter Unit of the National Association of Parliamentarians, Peter Klapes and President of the Maids of Athena, Tina Papadopoulos. They were welcomed with applause, were presented with a Governor's Proclamation, signed the guest book and withdrew from the Chamber. The group was accompanied by George Demeter's family members: niece Connie Prescott, grandnephew Les Christos and grandnephew and past President of the Boston AHEPA, HBA and NAP's George Demeter Unit Peter Senopoulos and Boston City Clerk Alex Geourntas.

On motion of Mr. Timilty,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Tuesday next at eleven o'clock A.M.

Hollie Barter,-- sick leave.

Time of meeting.

Adjournment in Memory of Carol Jean Risch Mori.

The Senator from Essex, Ms. Lovely and the Senator for Essex and Middlesex, Mr. Tarr moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it does so in memory of Carol Jean Risch Mori.

Carol Jean Risch Mori, 67, wife, mother, and archivist at the Wenham Museum's Patton Family Archives, passed away peacefully at Kaplan House in Danvers on January 25, 2023, surrounded by her loving family after a courageous 25-year battle with breast cancer. She was the wife of longtime district court judge Honorable Richard A. Mori, with whom she shared 42 years of marriage. Carol was born in New York City to Martha C. Risch of Warminster, Pennsylvania and the late Robert R. Risch.

Carol graduated from Ridgewood, New Jersey High School in 1973 and continued her education at the University of New Hampshire, where she earned a BS in Administration in 1977. Carol met her future husband at UNH, and while it wasn't love at first sight, they became good friends which began a lifelong partnership.

After graduation, Carol began her career as a budget analyst with Continental Insurance Company on Wall Street. She had a sunny and well decorated apartment in Stuyvesant Town on Manhattan's East Side and enjoyed the city life. Carol had earned the girl scout gold star award and was the co-leader of a girl scout troop in New York City's Gramercy Park. She enrolled in New York University's MBA program and was on the fast track to success. She and Rich developed a long-distance relationship, often traveling on Amtrak between New York City and Boston, where he was attending law school. She completed her MBA at Suffolk University in 1983.

Carol and Rich married in 1980 and purchased their first home in Beverly in 1981. The home was a diamond in the rough, an 1890's Victorian nestled near Beverly Harbor. Carol was the driving force in restoring the home to its original beauty and charm.

Once settled in Beverly, Carol joined the Beverly Women's Club where she made friendships that would last a lifetime. She was an entrepreneur and with a friend, established her first business, "Wallpaper on Wheels". Her most notable business was "CRM Creations", where she used her exquisite sewing talents to create items such as velvet Christmas stockings, teddy bears, wreaths, and ornaments. Carol was a creator of anything and everything. She restored her grandmothers 1941 Singer sewing machine, and if you were unsure of where Carol was, you could listen for the muffled humming of the sewing machine.

Carol's favorite time of year was spring. She would spend countless hours in the garden getting her hands in the dirt to clean up the remnants of winter, planting bulbs, or simply admiring the colorful flowers. As the tulips bloom this year, may we all think of Carol's infectious smile, caring nature, and friendship.

Carol worked tirelessly using her management and organizational skills to advance her husband's law practice, which helped him become one of Massachusetts' youngest judges in 1993. Her real passion was her family and raising three wonderful children. She was active in all aspects of her children's lives, often being a room mother, assisting in school programs and eventually becoming a substitute teacher in the Beverly Public Schools.

In 2008, she found her calling as the Archivist for the Patton Family Archives in Hamilton. The Patton's, having saved everything, entrusted Carol to catalogue and archive tens of thousands of items and papers. She was enthusiastic about her work and especially enjoyed working with Joanne Patton, widow of the late General George S. Patton. Over the next 14 years she worked on the project with numerous veterans, volunteers and interns from Gordon College and instilled in them the importance of preserving history. Carol had also been working on her own family genealogy and created a family tree as far back as the 1600's.

She was an active member of the Colonel Timothy Pickering Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution and in 2021 received the DAR National Community Service award for her countless hours devoted to sewing masks during the pandemic. All money from the masks was donated to the North Shore Cancer Walk. In 2022, she was named as a Commonwealth Heroine of Massachusetts. Carol encapsulated the true spirit of being a heroine and her legacy will continue on in the community.

In 2015, Carol gained one of her most cherished roles as "Grammy," where she radiated so much love, time, and energy, creating lifelong memories for Maddie, and more recently Theo. She also had a profound love for her grandpuppy Blu, to which she was referred to as "Sammy Grammy" because she fed him a salmon filet whenever he visited.

In addition to her husband and mother, she is survived by her children, Theodore R. Mori and his wife, Christal M. Mori of Gloucester, Hannah E. Mori and her boyfriend, Andrew W. Hosking of Beverly, and Victoria Mori Daigle and her husband, Lucas K. Daigle of Nashua, New Hampshire, a sister, Deborah R. Bernard and her husband, Anthony J. Bernard of San Carlos, California, a brother, James C. Risch and his wife, Marci C. Risch, of Fayetteville, Arkansas, two grandchildren, Madelyn E. Mori and Theodore R. Mori, Jr., and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Carol Jean Risch Mori, at thirteen minutes past twelve o'clock noon, on motion of Ms. Lovely, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Tuesday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
