Moment of silence.

Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. O'Connor,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.

Time of meeting.

Adjournment in Memory of Genoveffa (Ferrara) Ruscito.

The Senator from Plymouth, Norfolk and Bristol, Mr. Timilty, moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it does so in memory of Genoveffa (Ferrara) Ruscito, known to all as Gina, who passed away November 3rd.

Born in the quaint village of San Pietro, Irpinio, Avellino, Italy, Gina carried the warmth of her homeland in her heart throughout her life, sharing it generously with everyone she encountered.

Gina's journey brought her to the United States at the age of 17, where she continued her life's adventure. She settled in Stoughton for her final 12 years, after having lived and created a lifetime of memories in Milton and Hyde Park. Her commitment to family and her nurturing spirit were evident in every aspect of her life, as she embraced her role as a devoted wife to her beloved husband for 52 years of Antonio Ruscito, and as a loving mother to her children, Teresa Lombardo and her husband Joseph of New Jersey, Aldo Ruscito and his wife Sylvia of Canton, and Anthony Ruscito and his wife Kendra of Canton.

She was the daughter of the late Americo and Carmella Ferrara; and sister to Flora Ferrara and her husband Angelo of Salerno, Italy, Sabato Ferrara and his wife Fiorentina of Easton, Gigliola DiLetizia and her husband Renato of Canton and Bruno Ferrara and his wife Rita of Norton. Her love extended to her role as a doting grandmother, cherishing every moment with her grandchildren Joseph, John, Anthony, Chiara, Anthony, Cristiana, Sam, Francesca, Aldo and Antonio.

Gina's childhood in Italy laid the foundation for her wisdom and the values she upheld throughout her life. Her move to the United States marked the beginning of a new chapter, but she remained deeply connected to her roots, infusing her Italian heritage into the fabric of her family's life.

Her work history was not characterized by titles or accolades but by the profound impact she had on her family. She was the cornerstone of their home, a testament to her unwavering dedication and selflessness. Her involvement with her family was her most significant association, one she cherished above all else.

An incredible cook, Gina found joy in the simple pleasure of preparing meals that brought her family together around the table. Her culinary skills were matched only by her capacity for love, and her kitchen became a place of gathering, laughter, and shared stories. Her interests were deeply intertwined with her love for her family, especially her grandchildren, with whom she spent countless cherished moments.

Those who knew Gina would describe her as the epitome of love and selflessness. She had an innate ability to make everyone around her feel valued and cared for, a gift that will be profoundly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

She will be deeply missed, but the warmth of her love will forever remain in the hearts of those who loved her.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Genoveffa (Ferrara) Ruscito, at twenty minutes past eleven o'clock A.M., on motion of Mr. Timilty, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
