

From Silos to Networks

EU-US eHealth Marketplace
23 October 2012

Andrew McCormick
Chief Executive of Health and Social Care Northern Ireland

Albert-Laszlo Barabasi

- With over billion documents available today, it is hard to believe the Web emerged one node at a time. But it did. Barely a decade ago it had only one node..... As physicists and computer scientists started creating pages of their own, the original site gradually gained links pointing to it.

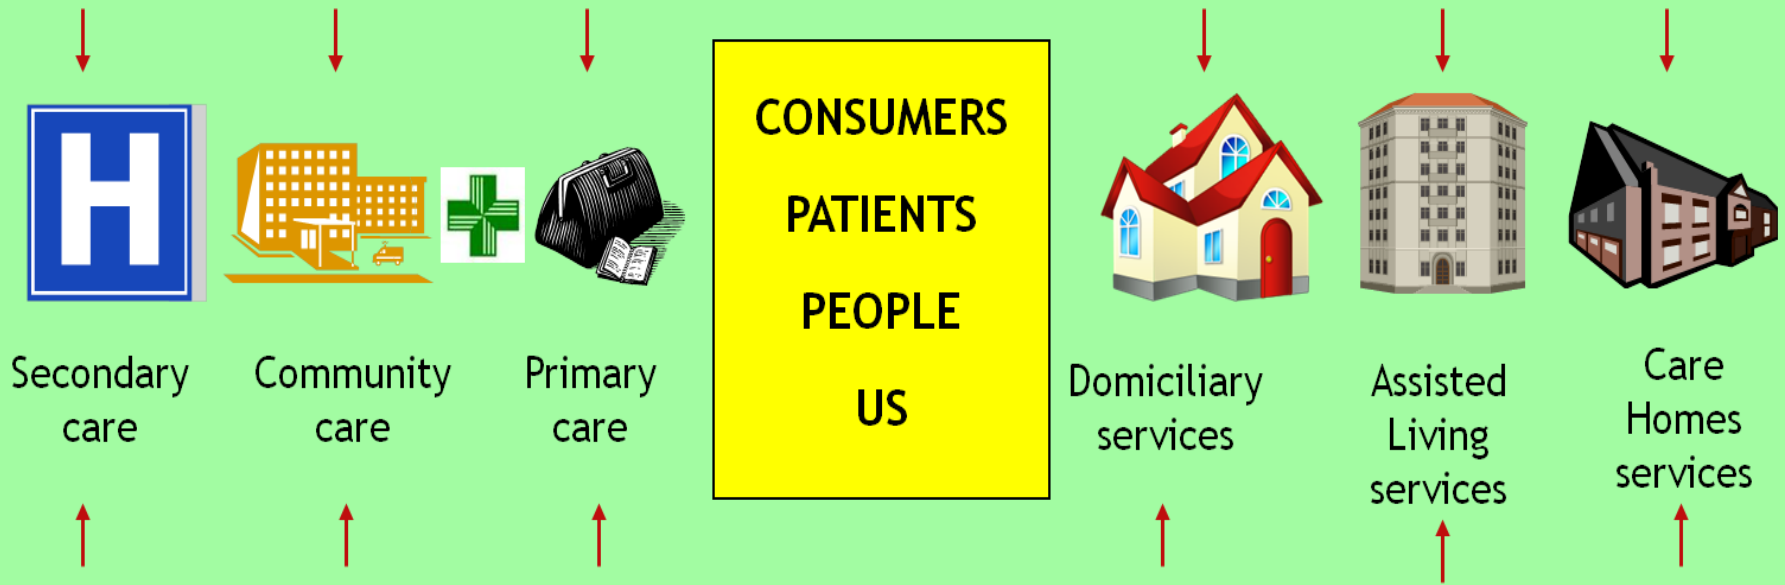

Connected Health and Social Care

- 2008 – Launch of Northern Ireland initiative to take remote patient monitoring to scale
- 2011- Contract signed and patients benefitting
- 2011- MoU for DHSSPS and Invest NI
- 2012 – Contract for Electronic Care Record in Northern Ireland
- 2012- Creation of Northern Ireland Connected Health Ecosystem

Connected Health and Prosperity

- Memorandum of Understanding signed December 2011 by Health and Economy Ministers
- Steering Group co-chaired at Chief Executive level, with NI Universities represented Vice Chancellor/ President Level, and Private Sector membership
- Action Plan with specific commitments to support innovation

Commissioners of Healthcare
Commissioners of Social Care

Public Providers Industry University & Research Organisations

- Health and social care providers
- Technology devices, equipment and services
- Consumer healthcare products and services

- Pharmaceutical
- ICT software (telecoms) equipment & services
- Research

2012 and beyond: Stronger, Wider, Deeper

- Partnership within Northern Ireland – managers, clinicians, politicians, academics, entrepreneurs
- Partnership in Europe – Finland, Catalonia, Basque Government, Scotland and more
- Partnership with the US (Partners, NIMAC) and EU Commission

Final Points

- Transformational change requires concerted, connected leadership
- Solutions must focus on patients needs and build support around them
- Relationships and Partnerships need support and structure – within and between sectors and within and between regions
- One node at a time

Margaret Wheatley

- Everyone in a complex system has a slightly different interpretation. The more interpretations we gather, the easier it becomes to gain a sense of the whole.